

Morality moves with a tension between individual freedom and sacrifice of freedom for the sake of the common good of the society. The feelings of compassion and love for the fellow beings forge the strength of cohesion of a society, while individualism tends to splinter it. However, without individual freedom for innovation and creativity the society can't progress. Morality is a two-way traffic: One which generates the higher-mind in an atmosphere of spiritual freedom of the highest kind; the other is a sacrifice for the benefit of those who live in the bondage of ignorance...
