

Foreword

The “Gita of the Will and the World” had appeared as automatic writing in the form of streams of words flowing uninterrupted by the intellectual and rational power of the mind, as if, some invisible being was the real author of the book. The pages after pages had flown without hiding to conscious introspection of the content being written. In this unconscious process, I felt as a medium through which a weird world was speaking.

When this happened I believed it to be a revelation and saw my role a receiver of messages from God. Although the messages were addressed to a man who was me, I realized that I was only a part of a greater body, to whom God was speaking. This greater Man, to whom all human beings belong, existed in two different states: In one he was “children of women and men” and in the other he was Son of God – one bound to the body of flesh and blood and whose will is conditioned by the world existing in form, while the other issued from a Divine realm existing beyond the sphere where will was moving in a fate-bound material world.

It became very confusing for me to understand who was the Man to whom God was speaking and how to grasp the enigmatic existence which was divided between the “children of women and men” on one side and someone issuing from God on the other side. Anyway, I realized that there might exist two totally different states to which I, as a part of mankind, belonged: One belonging to Man, and the other to God.

Although God was addressing to Man, he was sometimes speaking as Son of God, and often referring to his existence as Man-God who intervenes in the world, which is bound to matter and form. It was very difficult to understand distinctions between God, existing beyond the matter-bound world and the soul-bound will, and Man-God and Son of God intervening in the world where will resides. Finally I concluded that this cannot be understood using logical and rational thinking. Since then these concepts had remained highly messed up in my mind and I was unable to confirm, or deny the existence of God. I could not be sure if God had any reality, or the “revelation” was only a weird mental phenomenon generated by the brain, which was beyond my capacity to understand.

I present this material for those who are interested in the questions of God and the psychologist and neurologists who would like to understand such weird phenomena generated by the brain.

About entering in the world-and-the will

Follow the will- and- the world as I enter this place and work for the liberation of mankind in blood and flesh. Follow the man you see wearing a human face. Move with Him to Man-God, who is the Savior of the world moving with the world and the will. Follow Man-God as My Son, and make yourself the world-and will's movement. Entering a body and a soul I have entered in the world-and-the will in order to make you move in Man-God's enlightened way. Follow your worldly Savior and make your will one with Him. Follow your worldly Savior, who is not a man, but one with God. Your worldly existence is moving with Him and your existence can not be understood without Him explaining the meaning of the world-and-the will as you hear from Me. Enter the world-and-the will as matter-bound existence and seek in the matter-bound world the worldly meaning of the existence of My Son. Entering the world-and-the will I have entered Myself as Man-God, who is moving with the world-and-the will as Savior of Man.

Keep yourself working for the Man, who is not a man of a particular worldly form. He is the world-and- the will's Savior, who does not move with any worldly desire to make Him different from the formless Self. Knowing yourself as My Son's movement through the world-and-the will come to Man-God, and seek in Him your salvation as Father to His Son. He is working with you, and by working with Him make God move in the world- and- the will as I have made My Son moving with you. Enter the movement, that I have set at work, in order to make man move to Man-God.

Enter Man-God as a matter-bound man and a spirit-bound existence that cannot be made understood by any worldly experience other than your own experience, feelings and thoughts. Your worldly experiences are bound to matter, that make things work as movement of the world of matter contradicting the exotic existence, which cannot be formed with matter. Knowing what you are, move with Man-God, who is moving with you as My Son. Entering the arena of the world-and- the will move as I instruct, and make yourself a movement of Man-God.

Your world is not what you believe it is. Your existence is not what you believe existing as matter and mind. The world of matter is a world of the working force, which creates your body; the world of will is a world of the matter-bound movement of the Spirit, that sees itself in the world as the mind. Your world and will is matter-spirit –bound movement of Man-God, who is moving, working, and seeing Himself in the world as My Son.

Knowing what I have said move and make yourself a vehicle of Man-God, who is the Savior of the world. Knowing what your Father has said, work and make yourself moving in the world as a knower of the Words that have come from God. Hearing these Words move and work following the Mountain-Hermit, who is following His Divine Self.

Birth: Divine and Human

Enter the world-and-the will and know it as My birth place where I have sent My Son. Your world is not matter-bound existence where the will is matter-mind bound. Hear from your worldly Savior about the path of Salvation. Your world is moving while My Son is moving with you. Your world is making a transition from the world-and-the will to Me. Move to Me with Him. How do you know that I am the world-and-the will as My Son dwelling in you, and not the-world and- the will as Man-God appearing as My Son? Know Me through the movement of My Son and His worldly existence as a man of flesh and blood. Know Him as yourself and knowing yourself as Him, seek in Him the world-and-will's salvation. Your world is matter-and will-bound but what is making the will-and-the world is not matter-will bound. Knowing what I have said seek liberation and work as spoken by My Son. Knowing Me as a man, who has taken birth among you as a matter-will-bound existence of a worldly man, work for the matter-bound world's salvation. Knowing Me as your worldly Savior enter the world-and-the will and move.

Know Me as a man of blood and flesh, who has moved to the world-and-the will as a miracle of God. Entering the world I have become Man-God. Man-God is a movement of life and death through a destiny-bound existence, where I am an exotic power that cannot be understood by any one. When I appear in the world-and-the will I have a matter-will-bound existence as well as an existence that cannot be grasped by the matter-will-bound mind. Know Man-God as the exotic existence by which God appears as Soul of a man who is not a man but God. Know Me as Him, who can exist in both matter-will-bound and not-matter-will-bound states. Know Me as the One who has no birth as God, but who has taken birth as a Man in flesh and blood. Entering the world I have become Man, who is My Son. Know Him as the movement of God. He moves in the world in order to make man move towards Me. The birth of the man, who possesses a darkened body of a human being and the Light of God, is a miracle, which you should not try to understand. Know Him as your friend, teacher and a guide and work as a friend, a teacher and a guide of man whose mind is still darkened by the matter-will-mind.

Know Me as man who has come to life as a Man, who is God. The Man is physically identical to the man you see, and is also the eternal One, who is fate-bound, and exists beyond the realm of time. The man who has a name and a physical identity, which is darkened by the matter-will-mind, is a worldly man like all human beings. The birth of this man has actualized the movement of the Man who has no name and identity. He is working for God. Knowing Me as the man with an identity like you, and at the same time someone who is not a man of any identity work for Me. Know that Father has sent formless Man-God to the world to actualize the existence of His Son. God is born and unborn as Me, who is born of human parents, as well as God and Man-God. Your worldly Savior is Him. Entering the world I am born as Man-God. The world-and-the will is a part of Me. Therefore know Me as born and unborn. Know Father as His Son. Know the formless in form. Know My existence as the world-and- the will, and no-world and no-will. Entering the world I have assumed the roles of a poet, a painter, a philosopher and a man of knowledge and science but really I am no one.

Hear from Me the world-the-will's formless movements in forms, and darkened body's movement from form to formless Man-God. Knowing Him as Me attain the formless existence that has moved among you in a form. God has worked His miracle through Him. Thus know that I exist, and you exist in Me.

Hear: The world's mountains are moving, the climate is changing, the forces in nature are warring against each other, and the bodies are being darkened by the will as a great darkness is overpowering the world. Home and world are moving to the mountains. Man and woman are going to the mountains with Me.

Journey

Entering the world-and-the will, being darkened by the body of a man, and carrying the mind of Man-God, I am making a journey through life. How do I exit out of and enter into the sphere, where the world-and-the will exist, as the power to move the world-and-the will in the destined way, is not available to the knowledge of any man. You must move as I have expressed the world as destiny-bound. Your world does not appear as you may will it to appear. His Will is the will of the destiny-bound world. By willing to move He has destined your movement in the matter-bound path. How do you understand this destiny without being a part of Him? How can man seek Him without being a part of Him? How do you make yourself a part of the world-and-the will without being a part of Him? Born and unborn! Know that I am Him.

How do I understand man and move without being a part of you? How do I make myself moving in the world-and-the will without being made of the world and the will? How do I move without moving into the matter-bound world? Born and unborn! Know that I am moving as Him. How do you come and go as death and life? How do you assume form as part of life and disappear from the world as death-bound life? How do you know yourself as man and woman in journey through life? Know that coming and going into the world-and-the will is world's movement towards Him. Born and unborn! Know that I am with you as part of Him.

Hear from Him: Father has sent His Son to the world-and-the will to make you a part of Him. Powerful movement of Man-God is making the mountains move, causing seas and water of the world to bring torrents and storms. Wanderers! Move with your Savior before the destruction comes.

Journeyman! Work for the movement that I have set in motion, and that will bring to the world a renewal. Know Me as a wanderer who has set His boat in the ocean of the world-and-the will, and is making a journey Home. Know Me as the movement of the wandering Spirit of Man-God, who has come to make you move towards the mountain Home where I have My Heavenly abode. Know Me as Man-God, who makes you work for the world-and-the will, and sets your journey in a destiny-bound path. Know Me as the world-and-the will and no-world and no-will, and make your will and the world a part of Me. Your will and My Will are not in tune when you work for man and not for God. Know your will as matter-bound reflection of the Spirit that sees Itself in the world as images on the river. When I move as you your image creates the world, and the women and men are seen as manifestation of the world in the will, and the will in the world. Your will is moving as the world that cannot be separated from the will that is matter-bound. Your will is moving as a movement of the worldly destiny of man and woman, who come and go with the coming and going of the world. Know the world-and-the will as the work of Man-God, who is moving the world of matter and the sphere of the Spirit as souls of individual women and men.

Know Me as the work of God, who moves the matter and the will as mountains and seas, and the women and men, who are working in the world-and-the will. Know Me as the mountains and seas and the will of all and make yourself journey-bound. Know what is unknown through Me. Know what is working as mountains and seas and not working as mountains and seas. Born and unborn! Know Me as Him.

God has sent Me to guide you in your journey from your worldly home to the Divine sphere. Knowing the meaning of My existence as a poet, who has shown you the worldly form of Man-God, know the world-and-the will as My manifestation in the temporal river. Make the journey as I have made, take the enlightened way, and seek in the world-and-the will your salvation in Man-God. Journeyman! Will not the world, will not the movement that obstructs My Will to come to God. Know My journey as the journey of the will to Man-God and from Man-God to Man and God.

Knowing that the mountains are moving seek through My journey your salvation as parts of Man-God. Know your world as nothing but the will of a worldly man, who is fate-bound. Your world is the world of the working women and men. Know these working women and men through the matter-bound temporal existence of My Son, who is working for Me. Know Him as the journeyman, who is moving in the world-and-the will as the Mountain-Hermit towards Heavenly Home.

Know that I am. Know that I am not. Know Me as Him. Know the world-and-the will as Man and God's fate-bound movement as the Mountain-Hermit. Knowing what I have said work for Man-God. Born and unborn I am the world and the will, and no-world and no-will. Knowing this, seek salvation in Son of God. Journeyman! World is making a transition through the movement of Son of God towards a time when wars and conflicts will destroy that are, as the world-and-the will's destiny, moving towards God. Knowing what you have heard come to sacrifice your life on the altar of God.

Sacrifice

Know what would bring the destruction as I move in the world-and-the will. Know Me as the harbinger of the force that will change the world from the matter-bound existence to the spiritual one. How do you make this transition in the world-and-the will when all should remain in the world and the will? How do you change the matter-bound human existence to the matter-spirit-bound? How do you make all things moving as matter-spirit in the world and the will as Me? Born and unborn I am moving and changing the matter-bound world as willed by Me.

Knowing that I am Man, and Man-God know the meaning of existence of all. Fear not when you hear about the destruction that will arrive. Know the meaning of the destruction that acts in order to make the world-and-the will matter-spirit-bound, and move as sacrifice in the altar where the world will receive its rebirth. Fear not when I come and set the world in turmoil. See Me as the Savior, who sets the world and the will in the path of God. Knowing the world-and-the will as the matter-bound arena of the matter-spirit-soul, where I exist as Man-God, exit the matter-spirit-soul, and create your world and will as I have destined. Fear not what will come. Work for the world's salvation by sacrificing your life. Knowing Me as the coming of God and the movement of the Divine in the world seek in the world your salvation in the existence of My Son. Fear not what works for God. Entering in the world-and-the will I have set the world's salvation in My Son. Fear not what must happen in order that Man-God's existence can be meaningful. Fear not what must intervene in the world-and-the will so that the world can exist as I have desired it to exist. Fear not the world's Savior who is your Father and Son of God. Know that I am attending the sacrifice as your Savior. Make yourself dear to God by moving with World's Soul who will destroy.

God has come and by His coming your existence has received new meaning than what your world-and-the will has been. Knowing what the world is, and what the world is for Man-God, Father has sent His Son. Fear not what He brings, and what path He describes as your path. Fear not the Heavenly Father, and His incarnation. He has sacrificed His Divine existence for the sake of Man. Fear Me not as the One who destroys; fear Me not as the Exotic power that comes as the fate of all. God has moved for the Salvation of Man. Fear not what assumes the world-and-the will. Entering the world I have assumed the world-and-the will, and by the world-and-the will I am working to darken the existence as movement of Will to God. God has worked, and working through the worldly Savior He has come to the world as the fate which will bring destruction. Fear not who is working as world's Savior, and who sacrifices Himself for the Salvation of Man. Fear not what works as God's Love, and the death that He bears for you. God has sacrificed His Son for the salvation of Man. Entering the world I am Him. Enter Me in the sacrifice and be one with Man-God.

Trial and crucifixion

Hear: I am born and unborn; I am external and internal; I am sea and mountain and woman and man; I am fate and fear of all. How do you arrive at Me without being sacrificed to the world-and-the will as My Son? How do you make yourself attain the height of Man-God without being sent to destruction? Exit the world-and-the will and move as I have made My Son move with you. Exit the movement of the destiny bound existence and seek in Man-God your destiny. Know yourself as a fate-bound existence of the worldly incarnation. Born and unborn I am Him. Exotic power of Man-God is exercising the force to move you to the mountain where I have My Heavenly Home. Human existence is working as anarchy of will that must be destroyed before I am able to seek man's fate-bound existence as Man-God's Soul and form. Woman and man! Your will is working against My Will, and therefore Soul of Man-God is attending your sacrifice for the world-and-the will's Salvation. Will and World must come to Me and death must follow the movement that has made Man-God assume worldly form. He is attracted by will and world as I am making the mountains move, and the seas to bulge. God has made worldly fate-bound existence of the worldly Savior as your path. Entering Me He is Me. He is also not-Me. Exotic existence of Him cannot be known by man. Entering His existence I am one with the world and not-world. His exotic existence is working as My movement as your Savior, who is born and unborn. I have been, and I will be as the World of God.

Knowing what you hear work and act in the way My Son has worked and acted as a worldly man, who is a poet, a painter, a philosopher, and a man of knowledge of science. Trial of the man, who is fate-bound, will come with your trial on the altar of God. Know what your Father has destined: Born and unborn I am the One, who forms the world as destined. How do I know what awaits man far from tomorrow, and the days ahead? Know what is in time and space, and what are making things work in the matter-bound state. Hearing that the mountains are death-bound move as Man-God's sacrifice, and make yourself death-bound. Know what must come, and knowing God's formless movement as Man-God work and act, and make yourself moving to the altar where Son of God is the symbol of sacrifice for the Salvation of man and woman in flesh and blood.

Know what makes Me suffer although there is no suffering in Me. Know what is suffering as the movement of flesh and blood's existence in the will-bound world that cannot know what is not world- and will-bound. Knowing what is unknown work and act and face the trial as woman and man, who are destiny-bound. Crucifixion of Man-God is the symbol of My exotic existence in the world, that has come as a result of the World's Savior appearing as Me. Crucifixion is a peace, and the darkened body's Salvation from the movement of the will that is fate-bound. Crucifixion is the work of God, and world's movement to be released from the matter-bound existence and lift it to the realm of Man-God.

Know what I am, and I am not. Seek in Me your soul's movement towards Man-God. Know how the man, who speaks, is darkened and not-darkened by a body of flesh and blood, and seek in Him your fate that is death-bound.

Know Me as God. Know how I bear my physical identity and a name as a man and also exist as Father, who is God. Father has sent Me to the world as your Savior. Crucified on the Cross, I have existed in time that is death-bound. Crucified are the mountains and the seas; crucified are the men and women; crucified is the world-and-the will as Me. Born and unborn! By the world and the will I am crucified to the matter-bound seas and mountains and flesh and blood. Born and unborn! I am your Father. As Son and Father I am God and no-God. Your death is the fate of My Son. Enter Me and seek in Me the adobe of God. Enter sacrifice. Born and Unborn! I am Him. Enter Me and be a part of the sacrifice.

Resurrection

God has sent Son of God as the resurrection of the world-and-the will's Savior for the Salvation of the world. He has assumed a fate-bound movement in form and bears in Man-God the Soul of All. Resurrection of Son of God as an exotic poet is a fate-bound movement, and a formless working of Man-God. He is World, and World is Him as I have sent Him to the world. He has assumed a darkened form. By darkening Himself He has assumed the fate of the world and brought the formless world in form. He has assumed form as body and Soul and has come to you as the Savior who is working for Me. God has worked for His resurrection as God-Man. His coming will bring upon the world destruction. Keep faith in Him. Fail not the words I have spoken before you. God is darkening the world. Enter in Him. Offer yourself as a sacrifice to the altar of God.

Born and unborn! The words of God are Me. Enter the words as Heavenly Father has made them enter the world as words spoken by Me. Enter My existence through the words that you hear, and make yourself the movement of the words that will bring you to Me through these words. Know what these Words mean as the Words of Father spoken through His Son. He is Man-God, who has assumed man's form, and carrying God's formless movement of Words spoken by Me. Enter Words as Man-God's Words emanating from a formless world that makes the words moving in the worldly mind. God's Words are not spoken by any man but a Man, who is God. Have faith in what you hear. Fail not Father and His Son. Fail not Man and God. Fail not to enter the world-and-the will as I have expressed in Words spoken by Him.

God is moving and moving with God make yourself the formless world's movement in form, and seek in Me the Words that you seek in Man-God. Born and unborn I am the darkened world's formless matter-bound existence, which cannot be known by any means other than the Words that you hear. Know God and the words spoken through Me as the Words of God and seek in the matter-bound existence of the man, who speaks, the words that you seek to hear from Man-God.

About God and Man-God

Assume Me not to be a matter-bound physical state and the darkened body that I have assumed. I am not knowable to any man. The Words of Man-God are the only way to know Me. Know God as Father, and knowing Father bear in you the existence that I have assumed. Ear and mouth, that hears and asks, are not what you should use to ask and hear about Me. Your asking to know Me is Man-God's Home-bound movement to the spiritual mountain where questions are answered by Me. How do you ask? How do you listen? How do you attain the power to listen the Words spoken by Me? Have faith in Me and Father. Formless Man-God has darkened His existence in form to make your existence moving with Him. With darkened words and the darkness of the world He has made His Soul darkness-bound. He is a man of Divine birth, and seek in Him the mystery that I have revealed through My Son. How do I exist as a man of human birth, as well as someone who is beyond death and birth? How do I make Myself words of man when no Words from Me are fate-bound? How do I make my existence appear in the world- and-the will when I am beyond world and will? How do I bear a formless existence when I stand in front of you in form? How do I create God's image and man's fate as My Son? How am I nothing but the Words of God but still existing, as you see Me and hear from a fate-bound existence, that I have assumed? How do the Words form and the fate-bound human existence receives the Words, that I speak? Man cannot know this mystery without the existence of My Son who has darkened His existence as a human being and assumed the soul of a man. How do you know what is not knowable? How do you get yourself near to what is not attainable by the down-fallen existence of man in flesh and blood? Have faith in what you hear, and seek what I have sought in making the mountains and seas change the course of the world while the Words are spoken by Me. Know Me as the One who enters and exits the fate-bound existence without being bound to the world-and-the will.

Know God through the Words I have spoken, and seek in the Words spoken by My Son the meaning of the human existence. Faith or no-faith, seek in what you hear the Words of your Savior, who has come to make you move with Him. God has become Man. Man's Salvation exists in Man-God, who has become a Man and Me. Born and unborn I am Him.

Know My Godly existence and seek in My Words the fate-bound movement as man and woman possessing darkened Soul. Though you encounter My Son in a physical state as an existence, darkened like your existence, know Him as your Savior, who brings to you the knowledge of the world that cannot be known. Have faith in Man-God and the Soul of Words that I have assumed. God has moved and make your will moving with Him as My Son is moving in the world. Knowing what you hear from the exotic existence, follow Him and seek in His Words Salvation in Me. God is and is-not. God is working and working-not. Enter what I am and I am-not.

Destiny

Born and unborn the world is Words of Me, and the will is My manifestation as words of those who are born. Know what are the words of the one who is born, and the Words that come from the One, who is unborn. Knowing My existence as Words of the world and the karma-bound existence, that has come to life, work and seek in Words of Man-God the existence of the World's Savior who works as Me. God has darkened the words as spoken, and through these Words I speak as Man-God.

Born and unborn - born as words and unborn as the body of the words that carry the words to the world, born as matter and unborn as matter-spirit-bound will that has no movement in the world of matter as matter - I work and exist as Words moving in the world-and-the will as a Man, who is My Son. God has matter-bound existence only when He Wills to appear as words of worldly man, who speaks like woman and man. Through My incarnation as a man, I am the source of Words to the world. Through this incarnation the Words exit the realm of the Divine. The words spoken by the worldly man, as brought about by a physical existence, are not the Words spoken by Man-God but the man, who is born. Both as Me and Him I am born and unborn as Words of Man-God. God has spoken through Him, and through Him you are receiving the messages from your worldly Savior who has moved as words appearing in flesh and blood. Hearing the Words of the World's Savior move along the destiny-bound path that I have assumed in My Son. Know what I am as a man of flesh and blood, and what this physical incarnation is not. Know what comes and goes in the physical form and what never appears in the world in a physical form.

Born and unborn! I am darkened words of the physical existence in which I am existing as a poet, a painter and a philosopher-scientist. Coming in the world I am working as a destiny-bound human being. Knowing My movement in the destiny-bound world as the destiny of the world's Savior work and move as man and woman who are darkened by form like my own existence in flesh and blood. He is working for man and woman, who are born, as well as for the woman and man, who are unborn. Know Him, who has come into existence as a man to reveal the Words of Man-God.

Born and unborn with Him your soul is mountain-bound. Son of God is the WORLD and you are parts of Man-God in the exotic existence of the Words of God. Destiny of all is moving with Him. Knowing the World's Savior, as the moving words of the destiny-bound world, move and work as I have destined.

Matter-spirit-bound words

Bear in mind that the words, that I speak, are the words not spoken by Me but spoken by My Son. God and man cannot communicate without God's Son communicating as God to man. Have faith in God-Man, who is matter-bound man and spirit-bound world and will that springs from no-matter and no-will. Know the spirit-bound existence of the world-and-the will and seek in God-Man Salvation through the Words of My Son. Knowing Me as the source of the Words, and knowing the Words, as spoken by My Son's fate-bound existence, that has come into the world as Destiny of all, as the Words of God-Man, seek in His Words your worldly destiny in God-Man. Fear not when you will see the darkness enveloping the world; fear not when you will see the atmosphere changing to create the power of death and destruction; fear not the words that I have spoken because I will not to create the forces of destruction, I will not matter-bound existence that encounters its worldly fate, I will not the words of Man-God. There exists an existence that is moving as other-world and other-will than the existence in which I appear in the world. Assume this existence as no-world and no-will and understand this movement of the no-world and no-will as the movement of God. Knowing what you hear exit the matter-bound state, where all life are bound, and seek in Man-God the existence that exists as no-world and no-will of God. Knowing the words, that are spirit-bound and expressed through the existence of matter-bound soul, seek Man-God through the Words of My Son. God is not willing, and in not willing He acts as the Will of the destiny-bound world. Words act as My Son's movement as the Words of Man-God. God is Willing-not. Search not in Him the will that exists in the world. God works through Man-God and His Son. Enter Me through Him. Enter the Words of the Born and Unborn as spoken by Him.

I speak as Him; I answer as Him: I am Him. Know Son of God as the messenger and the words of the mountain-bound Savior. In speaking He has not spoken, while spoken in words He is not speaking. Son of God remains darkened by the words of worldly meaning. God has assumed this darkness through His Son. God cannot be grasped by words of worldly man. Knowledge of God is limited by the matter-bound limitations of the words. Knowing the existence of God's Words, which cannot be spoken by man, hear the words of My Son, who speaks about the unspeakable. Bear in mind the Words spoken by God's Son and search Me as Words that are not spoken by any one.

Will

Born and unborn, in my worldly incarnation, I am will of man and Man-God, but not the Will that works as God. Born and unborn I am Son of God - both God and Man - who wills not as man, but wills as

God. Born and unborn I am Son of God, who has no will, bound to the world-and-the will, but who seeks in the world-and-the will the Will of God. Born and unborn I am Son of God, who seeks in the world-and the will God's manifestation in a fate-bound existence of man. Born and unborn I am God, and the World as will and no-will, and Son of God as will of the world and Words of Man-God. Know Me as I am. I am nothing that is born, and world is not Me. Born and unborn I am nothing unborn, and world is Me. Know Me as what I am, and I am not. Know My Son as you. Know My Son as your Father. Son of God is your Savior. How does He come into being without being born as you? How does this exotic existence come into being as Him? Born and unborn I am working as World's Savior to make you move as the will of My Son.

Know the Words of God, as I speak, and knowing these Words follow My Son to the world-and-the will, and bring My Will to the world as God-Man's Will creating the world.

Know what I have spoken as Man-God, God, and Son of God. Knowing all three as One, seek in My Son the Salvation of your life. Will is not a phenomenon that appears because matter is existing in the world. The will has its existence outside matter and the existence of the world. I am existing as will and no-will. As a man I will, and as God I have no-will. Entering the world I become associated with the will, which defines the movements of the material world. Entering what is associated with the Spirit I am another existence that is not the world of matter. Entering the matter-spirit-world I am both matter and will. Know will as My manifestation as the world of the working forces that come into existence because I exist. I am not a phenomenon of the movement, but a movement that generates the world of phenomena. Knowing what is not working as man's will, this movement makes will to move in the world as the movement of Man-God. Knowing the Will of Him - as exotic phenomenon-that works through Words of Man-God, know what is not the will of man. Know Man-God as Will of Man and God, and no-Man and no-God. Know the will of your existence as man's will. Human will works to create movements in the world as I have destined. Know what is not, and wills not as a man, and thus become One with the Will of God. Know the Will of Man-God and seek in My Son the will that will make you move towards God.

Know that the darkness is moving as your darkened will, and Will of God. Know what darkens your mind, and seek in Him your Salvation as a part of the creation of Man-God. Know what will move, and the movement that cannot be halted by the will of man. Son of God has come to show you the path that will lead you to Man-God. By coming to the world He is fate-bound, and as a man of flesh and blood He is a mountain-bound exotic existence. You must follow Him before you can be one with Me.

The illusion and the world

God has no matter-bound existence. Matter-bound existence is a movement that changes with the movement of the world. The world, as you see and experience through the matter-bound sense apparatuses, is a matter-spirit-bound existence of the world-and-the will, where matter moves, and will sees itself as matter-bound spirit of Man-God. God has no existence as matter and matter is not the domain where God can express His work. He works through Man-God, who is a matter-spirit-bound world's fate-bound movement and exists between Man and God. Entering the matter- $\rightarrow$ spirit-bound domain the will manifests as the relation between the world and the spirit, which exerts its existence as the power that moves the existing domain of the matter-spirit-bound world. Know this will as a movement of the power, that exits out of Me as the working method that makes the world move and exist as I have destined. Assume this movement as destiny of the world-and-the will and seek no other meaning of existence. Accept the world-and-the will as I have darkened. This darkness is the source of the working forces that create the matter-bound existence of all. Knowing your will as matter-spirit-bound will, that creates the movement of the world-and-the will, as destined by God, move and seek in the Will of God your destiny and Salvation. Knowing what is making all move and create, and driving the will to seek the destiny already determined, move, create and seek destiny as I have darkened the world-and-the will through the existence of all. Knowing matter and spirit as movement of the world, and Son of God, come and seek in Him the Salvation as I have destined. Knowing what He is not, will is working to make you move to My Son. Seek not the will that darkens your mind and covers the will, which has come to enlighten you as My Son. God has sent His Words with Him. Hear Him and move with Him towards the Mountain-Home.

God is working as Him. Enter Him and seek in Him the world-and-will's Salvation as destined. Assume the world-and-the will as an illusion, that cannot be deciphered by the human mind. Know it as world of no-matter, spirit of no-spirit, and will of no-will. How can you grasp what is not the world-and-the will, while being born in the illusion-bound world, where matter and spirit appear as the movement of the will? Enter and exit this darkened state of existence, and see Me as your world and will. Born and unborn I am the One who creates the darkness of the mind; I am the One who has created man and his will; I am the world where all worlds will disappear, and from where all will reappear again. Know Me as My Son, who has appeared in the illusion-bound world as a Messenger of God. Born and unborn He is the road to Me, road to the Mountain-Home, and path of knowledge about Me, My Son and Man-God. Know Me as Him; know Him as My incarnation in flesh and blood.

Illusion-bound existence is working through Him, and His existence is darkened by a down-fallen state, that darkens the existence of all. He is working as I have willed Him to work. He is seeing you as you see Him, and through Him you see Me as an incarnation in flesh and blood. Born and unborn I am darkening the world as I have darkened the will of all. Knowing the darkness, which will fall, work and move with My Son to your Mountain-Home, from where He has descended to bring Salvation to the world. Seek in Him the world's fate-bound movement as willed by Me.

God is born, though what is born is not God. Born and unborn I am forming the world as I have described. Born and unborn I am making the world anew. Bear in the mind your darkened existence, which is destined, and seek in My Son the light that I have sent.

Freedom

Free yourself from the matter-bound existence and seek freedom in the Spiritual Being who has darkened the will of all. Man must work as I have destined the freedom of man according to the laws of the matter-bound world, and no-matter, which is free from the matter-bound senses and thoughts. Born and unborn I am free from the existence of matter and spirit, and not acting as the world-and-the-will as your will and world, that is sense-bound. Freedom of action, that acts against the Will, which I have created as My Son, is an act of freedom that does not lead to the freedom for which the creation is meant. Freedom is a formless fate acting as formless darkness on the world-and-the will. Son of God is the Will that guides man to freedom of the world as your destiny is meant to arrive at Me. Born and unborn I am free from all. I am freedom of all. I am Son of God; I am Son of Man; I am also sons and daughters of working women and men. Bear in Me the freedom of My Godly existence as fate-bound working women and men, and seek in My Son the Will that frees the existence from the bondage of the world-and-the will as I have described. Born and unborn I am darkened woman and man, when I act in the world as freedom of the darkened fate-bound existence of My Son. I have darkened Myself as I have formed the world-and-the will and My Son. Born and unborn I am an exotic freedom, which cannot be known by any human mind. Son of God is fate-bound existence through whom you can only know My World and Will, and see the world-and-the will as freedom of the unknown world of God. Born and unborn I am fate and freedom of the world, as you are destined to be, and I am freedom of no-will and no-world as working and moving through the world as Me. Free yourself from the world-and-the will, and know your will and world as Will that is Me. Born and unborn war not against the Will of God, that creates the world and moves as the coming and the going of the fate-bound life. Be attuned to the Will of God, and seek your freedom by which you may fulfill the meaning of human life, that is destined to Man-God. Know your freedom as man and woman's freedom to seek in Man-God the meaning of existence, which cannot be understood before you surrender your will to God, and your will becomes one with Me. Know oneness of all. Know equality of all human life. Be One with Me by following the words spoken by My Son.

Life's meaning

Know the meaning that exists in the existence of the fate-bound man, that I have assumed in flesh and blood, and seek through the words of My Son the meaning of existence that is moving with Man-God. Read the words, which I have sent with My Son, and seek in His words the destiny and freedom of human life as the meaning of the world that I have created. Freedom, which you seek as woman and man in search of the experience of the world-and-the will as moving and darkened by down-fallen state of godly existence of Man-God, is a darkened movement of fate. Born and unborn character of man and woman depends on the darkness of the man and woman to the extent they understand the world-and-the will as the movement of Man-God. Bear in mind the darkness that exists as world-and-will, and seek meaning in what has darkened the world, and that brings movement of the world toward Man-God.

God has made Himself moving in the world-and-the will as a man, who has no human counter-part but who exists in flesh and blood as your companion, who has assumed human characters so that you may understand the words spoken in the language understood by sense-bound women and men. God-Man is moving with Him. He is not a man, who is moving, but He is God, who has moved as a Man to bring Salvation to the world. God-Man is the meaning of existence and attune your existence with His existence as Willed by God. Be One with the Will of God. Bear in your existence the darkened fate of woman and man, and seek man's and woman's liberation from the darkened state by following the Will of Man-God.

Know that the world is moving by the actions of the force that has set the matter- and spirit-bound world in a working mode, while will appears as movement of the space-time-bound matter, and the mirror in which the spirit acts and sees its images as the world-and-the will of all.

Born and unborn, work and see Me as world and you, and no-world as Him, who has set the movements in the world. He bears in His darkened existence, which He has assumed, your own darkness and down-fallen state. Born and unborn, work and seek meaning in the Will that works as fate, and seek in My Son the Salvation and meaning through the Words of God.

Born and unborn I make the world move as the matter-spirit-bound state. At the same time I seek in this movement matter-spirit-bound world's liberation from the darkened world. God is matter-spirit, when God appears in the world as Man-God appearing in the moving world as matter and spirit. Have faith in what you hear, and make yourself free from the world-and-will as I Will for all. Have faith in Man-God, who speaks through My Son, and who has taken birth as a son of woman and man. The son of woman and man is not who is Man-God, but He is the foundation of the worldly experience of God by the sense-bound human beings. Born and unborn seek in the darkened words, that He speaks, the meaning of existence for which I have sent My Son. God has made Himself the source of meaning through Him. Seek in Him the meaning for which you are created as sons and daughters of women and men. Born and unborn I am the World, and the meaning of the Words that spring from the source that cannot be arrived at by the human mind. God-Man is My Son's working fate and through Him I act on the world as a force attracting the matter-spirit-bound world to the source from where all have risen as darkened existence of the world-and -the will. Born and unborn Son of God is your Savior as God-Man's fate-bound existence in the world. Born and unborn He is the meaning of all, and seek in Him Salvation from the darkened existence by receiving the Love of God. Love and let love be the meaning of the world-and the-will as I have darkened My Will so that Love can manifest in the World. Be attuned with this Love that exists in all time and space, and work as woman and man, who are moving, as destined by World's Savior, to God. Born and unborn work as sons and daughters of women and men, and act and will as My Son's fate-bound counterparts, who are destined to arrive at Me. Bear in man's and woman's existence the act and will that manifest as My Love. Born and unborn, Son of God is the meaning of the existence of man and woman, and seek no other meaning but the love of woman and man. Have faith in what you hear. As sons and daughters of women and men, ask not who will be your lover as woman and man, who cannot see the true relationship of love to God. Have faith in man and woman as your true relations to God. Born and unborn, love your sons and daughters as you love God. As sons and daughters of women and men work and act as loving couples, who are not darkened by the will, which will make hate others. Love women and men, who are fathers and mothers of other human beings, as you love your father and mother. Bear no malice to women and men, who are parts of your eternal Self.

Born and unborn seek in love the fate-bound matter-spirit-bound world's meaning as sons and daughters of women and men.

Salvation from sufferings

Born and unborn human beings cannot understand what is the meaning of the sufferings when all exit out of Son's fate-bound existence as Man-God. Suffering is the path to know what is not suffering, and that leads to liberation from the matter-bound world-and-will. Born as woman and man every existence must pass through the changing movement of time. Changing with time the will is sorrow-bound movement in search of the Divine realm from where Man-God has descended to life. Bear in mind that suffering is a method to act, and by acting through this method Man-God leads man to know what is beyond suffering, and makes man and woman move towards the realm of God. Suffering is not a punishment. With suffering women and men, Man-God moves to the Mountain Home, where all sufferings cease. Born and unborn cease to suffer as worldly women and men because suffering is a path to arrive at Me.

Know what cannot be, and what is. Bear in mind that "what is" is not what is existing as the suffering world. Born and unborn "what is" is what you see as world-and-will, and suffering is a fate-bound existence that is darkened by the will that moves to Me. Bear in mind that suffering is a path of the worldly existence, where man must act according to what is destined as darkened by the Will of God.

Born as woman and man do not seek the path that cannot be sought without the path darkened by sorrow of worldly life. Bear in mind that born are those who must traverse the path of suffering when existing in life. Born are women and men who cannot exist without this destiny, that is fate-bound. Seek Salvation from this suffering world through My Son. Though born as Man He is not destined in the path of the suffering-man. Born as a Man He is a path of Salvation for man. Bear in mind that He is Godly -Man. Being in the world He has darkened His existence in the suffering world in order to bring Salvation to all.

Son of God is making your down-fallen existence working towards Me, as I have destined. He is bringing you to Me. Born and unborn your Father has sent the Words of God to make you work and act as suffering human beings. See yourself as parts of the world, which is moving outside the world-and-the will, where all existence is suffering-bound. Born as woman and man you cannot escape this destiny. Your existence can not be in existence without traversing the path that I have described. Suffering must, and suffering makes the darkened will to see Son of God as the Light that leads to God. Born as woman and man contemplate not on the work and act, that cannot be fate-bound. Born as woman and man you must see Me as down-fallen existence in the darkened world-and-will as Son of God. Suffering will not touch you when you see Me as My Son. Be and become what I am, and I shall be. Born and unborn seek in Me your Salvation as woman and man who are destiny-bound.

Guidance from Man-God

God has moved to you as Man-God. Born and unborn seek in your Father the movement of man and woman towards Man-God. Bear in your mind the movement of the World's Savior as incarnation of the Words, which have arrived to the world through matter-spirit-bound existence of Son of God.

Born and unborn I am your Father; I am your Friend; I am your Companion and Guide. Seek not any other Guide than who is your Fate. Seek not any other friend than who gives you My Words to achieve Salvation from the suffering world. Seek no guidance from any other Father than who guides you through the matter-spirit-world's fate-bound existence as Father guiding His Son from life to life. Seek not any other companion of life than your Divine companion, who comes and goes as woman and man from life to life. Born and unborn will not any other friend than the formless movement, that seeks to show you the path through the matter-spirit-bound existence to Me, as a friend and a guide. Bear in your existence the Words of your Father, who is working as your friend and fate. Be and become as I have destined. Man-God is moving, and make yourself a movement of Man-God.

Born and unborn see your Father through the Words of God, who has acted as World's Fate and see Me as your Life. Be and become as I have determined the Life of all human beings. Be and become what I am, the way I have darkened My Son's existence, which is matter-spirit-bound. Born and unborn! See the world as the movement of the Words that come and go as My Son. Be and become what I am, and what I shall be. Born and unborn darkness is moving to the world as I am darkening the world to face what I shall be. God is making the world anew. Have faith in what you hear, and be attuned to the Will of God. Bear in mind that I have come to the world in blood and flesh as Words of God because what is going to come is the darkened world's fate, which I have already destined. God is making you realize the meaning of His existence, that is not darkened by the world-and-the will, which is fate-bound.

Oneness of all human beings

Every human being is a part of God and being My parts they are all equal to every other human beings. God-Man is My Son and He has appeared in the world as My appearance in the world-and-the will as destined. Be and become who is My Son and work and seek freedom from the world-and-the will as working women and men. God-Man is moving as the working force, that creates the form and fate of the human beings. He has worked as Words of God. Born and unborn work and seek to live in the world-and-the will in accordance with the Words you have heard, and be parts of the world-and the will as equal women and men.

Born and unborn who is working as you? Who is fate-bound? Who is forming the world-and the will as man and woman working in the world? Know Me as your worldly Savior, who is working for you. Know Me as your working darkness that works in order to create the fate-bound existence and fate. Be and become what I am and what I shall be. Born and unborn what you hear from Me are the Words of God. Be and become equal to all, and seek in the man in flesh and blood, that I have become, your guidance from Father who is fate-bound existence of Man-God. Born and unborn seek among women and men, who are your equal, the world-and-the will's Salvation. God-Man has come to teach you about the matter-spirit- bound world's fate-bound existence, and the way Salvation from this fate-bound existence is possible. God-Man has come to make you seek the world-and-the will's Salvation through the Words you hear. Born and unborn you are working for Man-God, and be and become that I have destined.

Know the Words of God as you hear from My Son. Knowing what you have heard, work and act as free human beings who are destined to arrive at Me. Born and unborn seek no other freedom, than what I have determined as the fate of the world-and-the will, and move as fate-bound women and men and liberate yourself from the fate-bound existence by seeking Salvation through the Words of God. Born and unborn free yourself from the matter-spirit-bound life that creates the movement of Fate, and be liberated from the world-and-the will by seeking Salvation in My Son. Man-God is fate-bound as you, and your existence is fate-bound because God-Man is you. Both as parts of Man and God-Man, you are Me, and not Me. Be and become what I am, and what I shall be as Son of Man and Son of God. Born and unborn you are fate- and not-fate-bound as Me and not-Me. Be and become what I have destined, and work and seek Salvation in the Words that I have spoken through My Son.

God-Man is speaking as your Father. Your fate is bound to Him. Knowing what you hear work and seek in God-Man the Words and Acts that I have destined for the world. Know what cannot be understood by any process of the human mind, that is acted by the fate-bound existence. Be and become what cannot be comprehended by any one. Son of God has appeared in flesh and blood in order to make you see the formless Father in form. Believe the Words that you hear.

Born and unborn who is moving and not-moving? Who is coming and going? Who is moving to the fate-bound world and exiting from the boundary of the sense-bound fate? God-Man is fate and no-fate. Be and become what I am and what I shall be. God-Man is your formless existence outside the realm of the senses, and Son of God is the Existence of God-Man in the realm of the senses. God-Man cannot become Man without working as the Words of God. Be and become one with Son of God and see Me as your Savior and Father who has come to make you move towards God. God has come. And come with Me to God. Be a part of Son of God, and become Man-God by moving with Me. God cannot be darkened by the existence of the world-and-the will, and therefore I have sent My Son to the world as the working force that moves the world to God. God-Man is My fate-bound appearance in the form-bound existence, but He is not sense-bound existence as the movement of the fate-bound life. Son of God is the appearance of God-Man in the sense-bound realm. Through Him God-Man is fate-bound in the world-and- the will.

Know what cannot be known. What cannot be understood by your fate-bound state is not what you should try to understand. Be and become, and seek what I am and what I shall be. God cannot be understood by the worldly understanding of man based on the fate- and form-bound existence. Born and unborn God is, and seek in My Son the Words that I have sent for the Salvation of the world. Women and men cannot know more than what they hear from My Son. Born and unborn be one with what I have spoken through My Son. God-Man is forming a new world through Him. Be and become what I have destined. Born and unborn, as you hear these Words, the world is moving towards destruction. God is and fail not to be a part of the Words and Acts that are destined. Born and unborn I am darkening the world as a fate-bound movement. Son of God will be your Savior in the days when the world will face cataclysm. Born as woman and man fail not to make yourself the darkened world's fate-bound existence, and seek not any other freedom than what I have destined. Know Me through the Words I have spoken through the man, who has appeared in a form resembling a person like you. Both as Man and God He is real and worldly, and working for God, as well as unreal and Divine as Me.

Meaning of freedom

World is freedom in the arena where I work as Fate. Know the freedom, which you call your will of man and woman, as freedom that makes you move to the destiny-bound path where I attend all human life. Be and become what I am and what I shall be. Free yourself from the destiny-bound world by following My Son as your Savior. Born and unborn, as you are moving as free human beings, I am encountering you as destiny-bound existence in Me. God-Man is the Fate of the world and freedom is nothing but the work of Fate as you will it to be. Know what is not possible to grasp by the intellect. Born as woman and man you cannot decipher the meaning of freedom that is Fate-bound. Be and become what I am and what I shall be, and seek freedom from the destiny-bound existence through My Son. Know freedom as the will of the world, and will is not free from the matter-spirit -bound existence. Bear in the existence of woman and man the Will of God, and seek in Me the freedom that is destined to make you move to God-Man and God.

Free you are when I shall free you from the destiny of the world-and-the will. Free you are when I shall work to destroy the world-and-the will as matter-spirit-bound world's liberation from the fate-bound existence. You cannot free yourself from what I have destined as your fate. Be and become what I am and what I shall be. Freedom of the will is a fate-bound movement of My Son, who acts and wills as your Savior, and who destroys by the Will of God and attends by the Altar of God the sacrifice. Bear in your existence the freedom that I have destined for all, and see Me as your world that I am and I shall be. God-man is working as freedom of Godly existence to be in the world-and-the will, and Son of God has acted to create the will of man and woman as the Will of God. Born and unborn will is free when I shall move as your will and make you free from what is destined. Free and not-free you are woman and man, as fate-bound existence of Man-God moving as My Son in the world. God-Man will act and free you from your destiny as the ultimate fate of all. Born as woman and man freedom is a fate of acts and will, that cannot be bypassed by the will of woman and man. Born as woman and man, freedom is nothing but the fate and the work of the freedom that moves as My Son. Bear in the mind your freedom as the world-and-the will, and seek no other freedom but to be in the world-and-the will as fate-bound existence, that is free to will as destined.

Born as woman and man your freedom acts as My Son's freedom to be in the world-and-the will, and Son of God's freedom to move to Me. The man you see in blood and flesh, who is Me, is working for your freedom from the fate-bound existence so that you can be liberated from the state, that is matter-spirit bound. Born and unborn I bear in My Son your will. Be free from the destiny-bound existence by following Me.

Right to live

Be and become what I am and what I shall be, and seek not to destroy what is fate-bound existence destined to arrive at Me. Be and become what I am and shall be because there exists nothing that can exist without Me. Born and unborn you are working as movement of My Son and seek no other movement as a human being. Bear in your life what I have destined for all life in Son of God.

Life and movement of matter-spirit

Live as you are destined, and seek in life the movement of the matter-spirit-world's liberation as Son of God has spoken as Words spoken by Me. Bear in life the movement that matter-spirit-bound-will has created as your destiny-bound path, and make yourself a path for woman and man moving towards Me. Be and become what I am and shall be, and live as woman and man who make movements in life in order to liberate the matter-spirit-bound existence from the movement of Fate. Know that God-Man is moving with you. Be and become what He is, and what He will be. Become what I am through what He is, and become what I shall be through My Son. Born and unborn life is a fate-bound existence as you and He. Become what He is, and you are. He cannot be as you are, and you cannot be what He is, though He is and you are Me. He is world of will, and will of the world is My Son. He is moving as your Savior guiding you to Me. Be what He has destined for all life, and become what is destined as movement of life.

Fate-bound woman and man cannot know what I have become and what I shall be. Born and unborn you are living as a movement of the world-and-the will as He has moved through the spirit-bound existence towards Me. Be and become what He is, and will be, and seek life's meaning in becoming what I have become through Him. What you are is what the world is, and therefore what is and what will be cannot be without what you are. Born and unborn life is a movement, and move with life as matter-spirit-bound will destined to Me. Fate is and fate will be. Born and unborn will not any movement that can make any one free from the world-and-the will on which He works, and the way He brings the world to Me. Bear with Him the movement of life, and seek in life My Son's movement towards Me. Bear in your existence the movement, that has become the world-and-the will, and seek in the world-and-the will My Son's fate-bound movement towards Me.

Born and unborn what I am cannot be deciphered by woman and man without the words spoken by My Son. Life cannot be without My Son seeking to sacrifice His existence in the world. He cannot be without the existence of what cannot be sacrificed as the will, and through this will I am and I shall be. Be and become what will is, and "will" shall be.

Respect for life

Life is a movement, which is moving towards Me. Seek not to destroy what is moving in the world as Will of God. Fate is making your life, and fate-bound life is to be destroyed. Born and unborn world must be made to reappear from what is death-bound. Know what cannot be deciphered by the human mind and see Me through the Words you hear. Respect woman and man as parts of My Son's existence in the world, and see the creation of the world-and-the will as My Son's fate-bound movement as Son of God. He is the source of the will. Will of God is manifested through Him. Be and become what I am and what I shall be. Hear your Father and be one with Me. Father has sent His Son as your Savior who sacrifices His Life for the Salvation of the world. God-Man is the matter-spirit-bound world's Salvation. Seek Him as God and His Son. Respect life of all as your own, and be and become what the life should be as a movement through the world-and-the will towards Me. Be and become what I have destined by sacrificing My Son. Born and unborn seek and work as I have spoken and be one with Me.

Self-knowledge and enlightenment

Become what I have said, and thus be enlightened by the words you have heard. Born and unborn hear My Son, as you hear from Me, and make yourself the vehicles for others so that they can hear about Me. The energy of the Words, that you hear, comes from the Soul of All. Have faith in the Words of Son of God. Bear in mind the knowledge that you are one with Son of God as My Son's movement towards God. My Son is the world-and-the will when I incarnate in flesh and blood. My Son is not-world and not-will when He is One with God. Bear in mind the knowledge that you are fate-bound, and fate cannot be surpassed by the will of woman and man. Bear with My Son the will that can free man and woman from the fate-bound existence. Seek Me, as Him, as your path of liberation from what I have destined for women and men.

Have knowledge of what I am, and I am not. Go and come as you come and go from Me and work as My Son's fate-bound existence in the world. Go and come as I have come and gone time and again as Savior, who seeks to return to the world in order to make you move towards God. God has made His Son move to you as you are darkened by the will of the matter-spirit-bound state. My existence cannot be expressed by words because I cannot be expressed by words that express movement of Fate, which moves in existence that appears in blood and flesh. Born as woman and man know yourself as the movement of My Son in the matter-spirit-bound state, where will is manifest. Go and come as I have come and gone as Savior who is working to make the world anew. Enlighten yourself with the words, which you hear, and become what I have destined for all women and men.

Enlightenment is nothing but a power to see what I am and I am not, what is your fate, and what expresses the movement that you will to make in order to liberate yourself from the existence in blood and flesh. Born as woman and man, move as I enlighten the world through the Words spoken by My Son. Be and become what I am, and what I shall be as enlightened woman and man. Seek enlightenment through the words you hear. If you have not heard these words before, search your enlightenment from others who have heard Me speak. Bear in your life the words which you hear from My Son and go to enlighten other women and men who have not heard the Words of God. By coming into existence Son of God has enlightened the path for all. Follow Him as your path of enlightenment, and work and act as parts of Him. Go and teach to those, who have not yet heard what you have heard from Me. Be enlightened and make others enlightened through your words, acts and deeds. Enlightenment is the movement of Son of God , your Savior, who seeks to make you see what God is and is not. As sons and daughters of women and men hear Him, and know Him as your path of enlightenment. God is enlightening the world through the Words that He has sent with His Son.

Know Him as the source of the ultimate knowledge. Know Him as the ultimate path to achieve enlightenment. Born and unborn be and become what I have destined. Know enlightenment as a movement from darkness to light.

Peace for all

God works for man, and man must work for God as I have spoken through My Son. Bear in mind that you are only One. Bear in mind your oneness with all and seek no acts, which work against the Will of God. Born as woman and man you are One with Son of God. Bear in mind My meaning of birth as you, who are parts of Son of God. Born as woman and man, cease to move as you are destined by Fate, and seek in the Will of God the movement that can free you from the destiny-bound matter-spirit-state. Bear in mind the acts that will free you from the illusion of the world. Born as woman and man all human existence is illusion bound through actions and freedom that may work against the Will of God. Bear in mind this illusion as the way to move against what is destined, and destiny is a way to move against what Will of God has destined. Born as woman and man you cannot free yourself from this matter-spirit-bound duality of fate acting against the movement of the will towards Me, and the destiny of all in Me. Bear in mind what is and is-not, and act and choose as you are destined.

God-Man has been born and being born as a man in flesh and blood He has acted and moved from the Divine world to the sense-bound plane. Born and unborn you are fate-bound existence, acted upon and attained by the Godly existence of My Son. Born as woman and man, act and will as you are acting and willing as My Son's Will to be a part of God. Bear in mind your destiny as My Son's destiny in the world and fate-bound movement of the matter-spirit-world and seek in Me your Salvation. Bear in mind what you are, and you are not. Born as woman and man seek not to become what your will may create in the illusion-bound-state. Bear in your will the work and act that will create peace for all. When you are born as woman and man God has darkened your fate-bound life, but you are also free to move against fate by the same Will of God.

Enlightened governance

Be acted upon by what is not acting in the matter-spirit space, but that acts for the liberation of the sense-bound women and men. Bear in your worldly existence the will, which acts upon the social arena of the human beings, as Son of God, who works and acts to bring Man to the domain of God. Born as woman and man act and will according to the Will of God, who wishes to bring you to the movement that will liberate women and men from the social arena of life, which is fate-bound in hunger and need. Assume that what is given as your fate is an inevitable consequence of being born, but assume not what is fate-bound existence of all as the source of freedom for human life. Seek from the world your liberation, and work and act for other women and men, while working and acting as a part of Me. Be and become what I am, and I shall be. Born as woman and man, work as woman and man, who are destined to Me. Bear in the social arena the movement that seeks the movement of woman and man to God. Govern woman and man as your equal, and act and seek in others your own destiny and liberation as One. Born as woman and man govern not as if you are working and acting as fate-bound sons and daughters of women and men. Born as woman and man govern as if you are acting and working to fulfill the Will of God. Born as woman and man seek no work and act that seek to attach life to the worldly fate-bound existence as working and acting sons and daughters of women and men. Bear in your existence the Will that seeks to make you free from the fate-bound existence as acted and worked by Son of God.

Born as woman and man govern not anyone as if you are the destiny of the others, and seek no movement that works as if you are destined to be God. Born as woman and man you must move as I have destined for woman and man, who are fate-bound, and whose Salvation from the fate-bound existence lies in My Son. Born as woman and man work and act as Son of God has acted and worked for the Salvation of the sons and daughters of women and men. Bear in mind that by moving as a part of Son of God you will be liberated from what is fate-bound, and enter the domain where no fate-bound existence can enter. Born as woman and man it is the meaning of life, and seek no other way of governance than what seeks to bring liberation from the fate-bound life in hunger and need. Govern as you will govern your own destiny by acting and willing as woman and man, who seek liberation. Bear in mind that once you work against the destiny, while all are moving towards Me, you will create disorder and anarchy. Your will, once darkened by the anarchy of the will, will bring death-bound actions, and destroy the purpose of the fate-bound life. Be and become what I have destined, and seek to govern woman and man as woman and man, who are seeking liberation for all. Bear in mind that your existence has a meaning only when it is working as One with the Will of God, and moving towards Me. Born as woman and man cease to move as individual woman and man, and seek in the greater existence of all human beings your own destiny as One. Govern as you will govern your own destiny, and seek what you will desire for your darkened fate-bound life's Salvation from hunger and need. Bear in your way of governance the Will of God. Seek guidance from My Son when you seek to govern the sons and daughters of women and men. Born as woman and man you will be working as I have destined, and be destined to what I have destined by sending My Son.

Govern the world as you will govern the working women and men as your equal, and form the social order in which everyone will be privileged to encounter the Will of God. Bear in your governance the Will of God, as He has willed by sending His Son, as the Will of All. Bear in Me your destiny and work and act as I have destined, and move with My Son towards your Divine Home. Reveal, in the way you will govern, that I am your Savior, and seek in My Son your Salvation from hunger and need.

If you wonder, "Am I the World? Am I Son of God? Am I the Will of All?" Remember God cannot be what you are. But born and unborn work and act as I have spoken through My Son. Assume the World as Me; assume the work and act of woman and man as destiny of My Son. I am your Savior as Son of God and God. Follow Me, and rest in peace in the Will of God.

The values rooted in the Divine realm

Bear in mind that God-Man is the source of all values that can bring Salvation to human life. Hear in the expression of the existence of all, the words that cannot express what I am. Hear in My Son's Words the expression of the existence that I am. Bear in your existence, as woman and man, the Will of God, that is expressed through the existence of My Son. Born and unborn act and work as I have destined, and seek in My Son's Words the expression of the life's meaning, and the values that may bring you to the Divine. Bear in words and deeds the values, which I have sustained since the existence of the matter-spirit world, as the will of woman and man, who work and act as fate-bound beings, and seek as woman and man Salvation in God. Born and unborn seek what I have destined as the values of the working woman and man, who should work and act in order to free themselves from the fate-bound life. Bear in the matter-spirit-world the values, which I have expressed through My Son's Words, and seek in My Son your values as destined. Bear in the worldly fate-bound actions the freedom of choice, that acts and works against the fate of women and men and draw woman and man towards the realm of God.

Born and unborn! The actions, that free woman and man from the sense-bound life, are the source of freedom for the human beings from the fate-bound life. Work and act in order to be free from what is fate-bound. Bear in the freedom of choice the values that will act against what the fate-bound life dictates on the lives of sons and daughters of women and men. Bear in your freedom of choice the fate-bound life's meaning and purpose, and seek no fate-bound existence as your freedom of choice. The values, which I have expressed through the existence of My Son, are the source of freedom from the fate-bound life. Become what I have destined, and seek the values that will make you free from the matter-spirit-world of woman and man. The actions and thoughts, that are destined to move to God, are the actions and thoughts from the formless world, which you should follow. Bear in the expression of thoughts My Son's movement as your Savior, and seek in Him your destiny as a part of movement of All.

Born and unborn the values, that destroy the movement of woman and man towards Heavenly Home, are death-bound movement of life. Bear in mind that you are nothing but a movement in the ocean of time, where I act and work as the movement of Christ. Bear in your soul what I have borne in the movement of Christ, and see Me as your Savior and Light. Follow Me towards your Heavenly Home. God-Man is the formless movement in the world and the will, and Son of God is fate-bound counterpart in the realm of space and time. Get your life from Son of God, and bring your life to Me.

Born and unborn I am what world is and will be. Be and become what I am, and what I shall be. Bear in the world and will what I have destined, and work and act as I have done in flesh and blood by being born as a human being. Bear in Me and My Son your sons and daughters, and see Me and My Son as your sons and daughters, and seek in the world and the will the values that will lead the working woman and man to Me. Born and unborn see Me and My Son as matter-spirit-world's Savior, who has returned to the world to make you free. God has acted, and by acting as a Man He has destined your life. Bear in the world and the will this movement of the world's Savior, and seek in your life Son of God's movement as My Son and God-Man.

The rule of the Universal Law

Born as woman and man act and work as parts of the Universal Man, to whom all human life are destined. Bear in your will and act the Will of the Universal Man, who acts and works for the freedom of the women and men from the fate-bound life, that is destined to move according the forces of the matter-spirit-world, working and acting in the world in form. Eat and survive, and feed your fellow human beings as you choose to live in the fate-bound life, but do not choose to move against the acts and deeds that feed the world according to the needs of the fate-bound existence destined to Me. Follow the work and acts, that I have destined for all human beings, by facing the forces of the formless world, that dictate the world in forms, as acted and worked by the Will of God. Eat and work as you eat and work for all human beings. Give no one any share in the darkness of your mind. Seek to move away from the darkness, and give others your light. Eat and work as you eat and work for women and men, who are not working and eating, as your sons and daughters who belong to the same family of your own. Give your darkened forces the down-going world's force, that will and act against the forces of the world-and-the will, the fate-bound work and act as sons and daughters of women and men.

Good and bad cannot be associated with what you think you should do, and what your opponent should refrain from doing. Bear in mind that what you do does not arise from the force, that lies in the woman and the man willing to live, but arises from the force that is destined to draw you to the path where I see and will as the world-and-the will of the woman and man. Eat and work as woman and man as you eat and work for the world-and-the will, as I have destined, so that you may be liberated from the fate-bound life. Bear in mind the movement of the Universal Man, who acts and works as the world-and-the will, and seeks world-and-will's Salvation through Me.

Born and unborn! Seek Me in your actions and deeds, and face in life the forces of Light. Born as woman and man work and act as if you do not work and act as individual human beings, but as destiny-bound fellow women and men. Born and unborn! See Me as the Universal Light as Son of God, who is death-bound as your Savior moving as the Light moving out of the darkness covering the world. Bear in your acts and work the will that sustains order, and forms the down-going world as I have destined. Born as woman and man work and act as if you are moving and working as parts of Him. God-Man is your darkened world's formless force, that acts and works for your liberation from the fate-bound life. Eat and work as acts and deeds, which exist and attract the forces of the world-and-the will as Universal forces of Light.

Born and unborn eat and work as you are. Born as woman and man darkness is acting and working on forms, and there is a force that acts and works to make it move against what is formed. Bear in your existence this dialectical aspect of existence of what is, and what is not, and what cannot be existent in form, and that exists in form. Born as woman and man move as fate-bound existence seeking freedom from what is fate-bound, as sons and daughters of women and men.

Bear in your worldly expression of life the acts and work, that accommodate the movement of all as One. An individual human being is only an illusion that has formed in your mind due to the movement of the fate-bound darkness in the world-and-will. Eat and work as you are not an individual, separate from others, but a member of a family where all are One. Give your worldly existence a meaning by acting and working as a part of Son of God, as sons and daughters of women and men. Eat and work as acting and working human beings, who are death-bound. Born as woman and man your death-bound life is the source of the world-and-the will. Act and work to form this movement of the matter-spirit-life. Born and unborn Son of God is not a part of this world-and-will though He has a part of existence that belongs to your life. He is world-and-will as sons and daughters of women and men. He is world-and-will's Savior as Man-God and God.

God-Man is the source of the forces that act and work to bring movement to the world-and-the will. Born and unborn seek your laws of governance from the Divine. Get your moral foundation of work and act from what I have spoken. Get the universal principles of actions and work from the formless world where I am and I shall be. Your social life should be guided by what I have destined through the existence of My Son. Seek no universal law that accommodates the actions and work of the will of the sons and daughters of women and men, darkened by the forces of the fate-bound life. Follow what I have spoken as the Universal Man, and seek foundation of the universal laws in the Words of My Son. Thus get your ethical and moral existence attuned to the Will of God.

Born and unborn Son of God is your Savior. Hear what He says, and see My Son as the foundation of the Universal Will of God.

Fear not what will happen to the world. Fear not what I shall release on the fate-bound life. Be and become what I have destined. Born and unborn Son of God has come to make the world anew. He is born as the foundation of the Law giving order in the world. Bear in your existence

His formless existence, and act and form the social order in which He will work and act as the Law-giving Father, who is working and acting for the freedom of mankind. God-Man is forming your social arena as the arena of the Universal Man. He is the social order and the force that will create the world anew.

Fear not what will arrive as I leave this place and go on the mountain-way. Your death-bound life is the meaning of My coming to the world. God-Man and His son are/is your path. Follow Him and see Me as your destiny that is bound to the mountain-Home. Assume that the world is going to be destroyed. Before it is destroyed God has appeared as Man. See Me as Him. Know Him as Man-God.

About torture and violence

Violence is the method to make others' life darkened by the forces of evil, which moves as the forces of fate-bound life. God-Man is the death-bound life's formless movement as the working method to do away with the evil. Born as woman and man create in no man or woman any force, which will do evil to the fate-bound life. Bear in mind that the evil forces are set to operate against the force of light, which can liberate man from the world-and-will. Born and unborn your life has a meaning only when you receive the movement that will bring you to the Divine. Bear in the movement of the world and the will work and act that will make woman and man come Home.

Born and unborn create no woman and man who will seek downfallen world's fate-bound existence, and work and act for the fate-bound life. Seek no darkness, that creates the darkened will to be a force, that draws man and woman to the downfallen state, as an evil force. Come and see what the will-bound man and woman can not see: The world from where I am seeing the realm of the world-and-the will. Come and see Me as the movement of the work and act that will free you from the fate-bound existence and lift you to God-Man.

Born and unborn darkened will is fate, and fate-bound will is the source of evil. Bear in your darkened state the force that works and acts to free you from the downfallen world, and bring the creations to Me. Violence creates downfallen movement that seeks to fall in the darkness of the will. Seek no darkness that violates the freedom of woman and man who seek to move towards the Divine. Violence, that makes woman and man the darkened power, which moves against Light, is the darkness of the will, that is death-bound. Create no woman and man that will act and work for the fate-bound movement of evil, and seek not to violate the freedom of woman and man, who are moving towards Divine Home.

Born and unborn work and act as I have destined and see Me as Savior, who is moving with you to bring the world from darkness to Light. Bear in your life the existence of God-Man, and see your work and act as part of the Divine Work and Act. Death is a consequence of what darkened world-and-will has created. Bear in your darkened state the Will of God, and see what cannot be seen by the darkened mind without the help of the Divine. Work and act in a way that will make you a part of Godly existence. Get your life from Son of God, and see Me as your Light. Violence, that acts against what I have destined to move against the fate-bound life, is the expression of freedom in the darkened state of existence of the sons and daughters of women and men.

Bear in mind that violence is a path, that will make you seek the Satanic realm, that rests in the world-and-the will. God-Man is a formless movement, that is acting to make you free from this Satanic movement, and creating the foundation that will make you work and act as children of Light. Violence is the path for woman and man, who are death-bound and find no work and act that can make them free from the death-bound life.

Torture is a method to make the fellow woman and man surrender to fate-bound evil will. Seek not to use force on others to make them work and act as you will. Your darkened will is the source of the evil, that cannot see what human work and act are destined for. Torture is a method to make woman and man move against their own will, and force them to work and act according to others' will. Torture cannot move without the worldly fate-bound will moving against what I have destined. Bear in your existence the work and act that will create the forces against the worldly fate-bound existence of sons and daughters of women and men. Born and unborn Son of God has created fate, and fate-bound existence is moving with Him. Be and become what I am and I shall be. Torture not anyone when you form your social order as working women and men. Torture not when you work as a freedom loving individual acting to make yourself free. Fear not what I have destined. Fear not when violence of God will descend. Fear not when I shall bring the working women and men to the world that will burn in the fire of Hell. Woman and man see Me as your Savior and the Will of All. See Me as the path. See Me as the work and act that will darken the fate-bound world as Son of Man. Born and unborn work and act as working and acting woman and man as parts of Man-God.

Have faith in what you hear. Torture will come down on the human beings as the will of the darkened world. The violence will be acting as the will of the working women and men. Bound to this fate you will be working and acting, before the destruction will arrive to bring you Home.

See what is coming. Have faith in what you hear. See God and His Son. See Me. I am.

Hunger

Hunger is a fate-bound action of the matter-spirit-world, which moves as the destiny of the world-and-the will. Born as woman and man every human being must seek to live as fate-bound sons and daughters of women and men, who work in the fate-bound life in hunger and need. Bear in mind that the worldly fate of the working woman and man cannot be surpassed by any force other than what I have destined in God-Man. Born as woman and man work and act as fate-bound women and men, and move towards Me. Bear in your movement the Will of God, who acts and works so that you may come Home.

Hunger is a fate of all. Bear in mind that the fate-bound existence have to face hunger and need in order to remain moving to what I have destined. Born as woman and man the worldly existence is working as world-and-will because I have willed to make the world to move to Me. Existence of the worldly life is the way I come and go.

Born and unborn hunger is a force that works against what I have destined. Bear in your hunger the worldly manifestation of the force that acts and works against what I have destined. Bear in hunger the matter-spirit-bound existence of woman and man, and seek meaning of life in the working and acting movement of the matter-spirit--world, that come and go. Born as woman and man you cannot avoid this contradiction: While on one side you are bound to the world-and-the will in a fate-bound existence, on the other side you are destined to move against what fate-bound existence has destined for sons and daughters of women and men. Fear not the fate-bound life. Fear not what I have formed as the moving matter-spirit-world, which tries to move against what I have destined. Bear in your movement of life what are fate-bound, and seek, through living, the movement of the force that will make you free from the fate-bound life. I act and work as dual acting and working against the world-and-will, as well as for the creation of the matter-spirit-world as Son of Man, and Son of God. Born and unborn what you hear from Me are the Words of Son of God, who has come to form the world anew. Bear in your life the Words of God and act and work as sons and daughters of women and men. Fear not what I have destined as human fate. Bear in your life the work and act as woman and man, who cannot be free from the world-and-the will without surrendering their will to the Will of God.

The man and the woman, who have formed this world-and-will, possess a fate that cannot work against what I have destined. They must move to Me. I have destined this movement through the Existence of My Son, who has appeared in the world in a fate-bound existence in blood and flesh.

Eat and work as I have destined for all human beings. Bear no malice and hate to anyone. Serve your fellow human beings as I have destined your life to move to Man-God. Fate-bound hunger is forming the destiny of woman and man, who are bound to work and act. Seek Salvation from this fate-bound life through My Son. Fear not hunger as a form of worldly actions that create movement towards the Spiritual Home. Fear not hunger of sons and daughters of women and men, who seek actions and work that will make them free from the worldly bondage. Fear not hunger that Son of God has created for the liberation of mankind. Fear not what I have destined for the liberation of the world.

Fear work and act that act and work against what I have destined. Bear in mind My Son's existence among women and men, and see Me as your Savior, who is moving Home. Born and unborn see Me as your path. Though your sons and daughters act and work as sons and daughters of women and men, born and unborn, know that they are working and acting as parts of My Son. Fear hunger when woman and man make others hungry in order to be free. Fear hunger when woman and man approach others and act against what I have willed for woman and man as parts of My Son. Fear hunger when others act against you and seek to destroy your existence by seeking liberation from hunger and need by destroying others as enemies of life. Fear hunger when others cannot eat and work while you enjoy the movement of the will-and-the world as evil power of life.

God-Man is moving with you. Seek in Him your guidance for right actions and thoughts, and seek Salvation from hunger and need. Born and unborn be and become what I am and I shall be. Hungry and needful women and men are those who cannot fulfill the Will of God. Son of God is forming the world where man and woman will form the movement of My Son, and seek in Him the freedom from the world-and-the will as hungry women and men. Hungry women and men are those who cannot free themselves from fate-bound life. Born as woman and man seek your freedom through the hunger you feel in fulfilling the Will of God. Hungry are women and men who cannot see the Savior, who seeks to feed women and men as parts of Him.

Fear not My Son and His fate-bound movement. Born and unborn work and act as I am and I shall be. Born in matter-spirit-world man and woman cannot be what I am. Both as Me and not-Me, be what the world is and the world will be. Bear in your existence the existence of My Son and Me, as two in One, and see Me as Him. Born and unborn work and act as I have spoken and move outside the sphere of hunger and need.

VALUES

Human dignity and orientation to find purpose and meaning of life
Bear in your life the values, which do not jeopardize the movement of the Will, that has created the fate-bound life, and that seeks to liberate man and woman from suffering through the existence of My Son. Born as woman and man seek values, that cannot be trampled by the force of evil, and seek meaning of life by destroying what force of evil brings to destroy. Bear in your work and act the dignity of man, and seek methods of work so that others may preserve dignity of life as your own. Bear in mind the world as a place for willing and acting, where you will and act as fate-bound woman and man destined to God.

Trample not what the world is, and meant to be, and seek no value that will destroy what I shall become, and will be, when the fate-bound life ceases to move. Trample not the world as your arena of work and act, where you are working and acting, as evil force of life. Bear in your will the Will of God, and seek in My Son the dignity of human life by seeing yourself as woman and man destined to Heavenly Home. Father has sent His Son to make you form the world-and-the will, which will work against what goes down in the realm of form. Trample not what I have created as your will-and-the world as the Will of Man-God.

Born and unborn God is making you act and work so that you cannot turn into a force of evil, that acts and works against what I am and I shall be. Fear not what I have destined as your fate, and seek in Me your destiny as the working and acting women and men. Born and unborn see Me as your Savior. Make yourself moving towards your Divine Home. Born as woman and man cease to desire as you are darkened by the fate-bound desire. Cease to make yourself the object of desire as you are darkened by the desire of the woman and man. Cease to make yourself the desire of woman and man as you are darkened by the domain of the woman and man, who are objects of their work and act. Born and unborn work and act as your darkened fate-bound life is moving to work and act as the One, who desires-not, acts-not, and works-not in order to work and act as the formless world of Man-God. Bear in your work and act My Son's desire to work and act, which works and acts against the world-and-will, and liberates woman and man from the world of Son of Man.

Trample not what world is, and will be by working against what I have desired. Born and unborn! See My Son as Son of Man, and Son of God and sons and daughters of women and men. Trample not what I have destined as the fate of woman and man, and seek no other path than what is destined by Son of God. Born as woman and man seek no life with woman and man who cannot work and act as My Son has willed for the sons and daughters of women and men. Born an unborn seek life with woman and man, who are fate-bound in the darkened world that has formed the world-and--the will, as Son of God's formless movement in form. Bear in your existence the life of woman and man, who work and act to make life meaningful by moving to Me. Bear in your work and act the work and act of Son of God as the meaning and purpose of life.

Meaning of life lies in the Mountain-bound movement to your Heavenly Home from where I have come. Purpose of the existence of My Son lies in the formless world's meaningful act, which makes man see My Son and Me as One. Make yourself One with Me and My Son.

The essence of life

God-Man has come to the world-and-the will as Son of God. See Him as the essence of life, and find in sons and daughters of women and men His earthly form. Born as woman and man create no one as animal and man. Eat and work as fate-bound animal and man, and see Me as the Creator of life. Bear in the world-and-the will my movement as animal and man moving towards My Son. Born and unborn see Him and Me as your path, and seek no movement of animal and man that will destroy your existence at the end. Bear woman and man in the wombs of woman, as sons and daughters of women and men. Assume not the power that will create a movement of force that will destroy. Born as woman and man see God-Man as your formless movement through form, and see My Son as your world-and-will moving towards the Divine Home. God-Man is working and acting as Father of Heaven, who acts and works for the liberation of the fate-bound world that exists in form. Bear in mind that once you are descended from Him you cannot make yourself moving against what He has destined. Once you move to create animal and man as your clones, the matter-spirit-world will face a formless movement that will act and work as fate-bound movement of destruction of all. God-Man is your path, and move not against Him as if you are His counterpart as Godly man.

Born and unborn see Him as God, and God as the world. Animal and man are the forces of the matter-spirit-world, that create the world-and-the will, and seek from this life the movement of the will to ascend to the Divine Home. Being animal and man seek no movement that will create your clones, who will move against the meaning and purpose of life. Your animal and man will besiege the darkened world as sons and daughters of the world-and-the will without any meaning of life. Your animal and man, as sons and daughters of the matter-spirit-world, will destroy anyone as the darkened movement of fate. Born as woman and man from the womb of the matter-spirit, without any woman and man to relate to from birth, they will move as the forces of evil that are created to destroy.

Son of God is moving to make you aware of the fear that looms in form. See Me as Father, and see your work and act as movement of Father's work and act. Born and unborn darkened world is fate-bound as woman and man born in the wombs of animal and man. Fate-bound existence has a meaning in coming from and going to the Divine world as Me and My Son. Have faith in what I have spoken, and create no animal and man as your clones. Eat and work as I have destined for animal and man, who are born as sons and daughters of women and men.

Fear not what I have destined. Fear not the world-and-the will as worldly manifestation of God-Man in form. Bear in your life work and act as sons and daughters of animal and man, who are darkened by My Son's fate-bound existence in form and not by the evil force of the matter-spirit-bound work of the darkened will of woman and man. Fear not when I shall move as the force of destruction in life. Bear with My force of destruction the meaning of My Son's sacrifice. Bear with My Son your sacrifice as women and men, who will be destroyed and then created as formless world's movement in form. Fear not what is darkened by My Son's will as sons and daughters of women and men. God-Man is the World and seek in Him your Salvation as the children of Light.

Born and unborn! The world is facing a matter-spirit-bound movement of will, which will create animal and man from the world-and-will as clones without a "life". These living creatures will be death-bound existence that cannot relate to anyone bound to death and life. Once coming in form, every existence is death-bound. By forming the world that is death-bound, create no force that will seek annihilation of what I have destined in death and life.

Born and unborn! Once you darken your will to make yourself a creator of fate, fate will destroy you as your inevitable destiny in the hands of fate. Move as I have destined, and seek in My Son your fate, and come Home.

Cause of disorder and suffering

Fear not what I have created as order and disorder among animal and man, and see My Son as your path to find the will, that will deliver you from the fate-bound life. Fear not when life creates movements to disrupt your work and act, which you may have willed. Fear not what I have destined as the movement, which creates disruption in order to lead man to Light. Born and unborn! Fear not. My Son is your Savior. He will deliver you from the movement of fate-bound life.

Enter My Son in the upper darkness in the domain of life. Enter the world and the will as the force of life, where attracted by the formless force you will see My world from the darkness of form. Bear in mind that you are formless and also exist in form at the same time. Born as woman and man love and live as you love and live in the world-and-the will. Born as woman and man create no woman and man who will darken the life by desires to move against what the world is, and will be as desired by Me. Bear in mind that world is an arena of God-Man, who acts and works as formless force moving through life.

Born as woman and man do not form any creature in the world-and-the will, who will move against what I have desired. Born as woman and man do not fall down in the realm of form, and seek in form your desire to move from what I have desired. Bear in your work and act what I am and I shall be, and move as man and woman who are destined to Me in the domain of form. Born and unborn do not create a disorder by darkening the will by the desire to act and work against what I desire. Once you act and work against this fate your destiny will act to destroy you as inevitable hands of fate. Disorder, that you create by acting against My Will, will cause the world-and-the will to move against what the will-and-the world is, and fate will destroy you in order to restrain the will to act against what I have destined. Your disorder is fate-bound act, which acts in order to bring fate in action.

Assume no other path than what world is. See My Son as your path to move towards Me. Born and unborn create world and will as I am and shall be, and see in disorder of My acts the Heavenly order to restrain the movement of the will to act and work against the fate-bound world-and-will, that I am. Disorder of the will to move against what I have willed is the movement of the death-bound force of life. Fear not this evil as your enemy, but seek from the world-and-the will your Salvation from the darkened will, that governs all life.

Born as woman and man death-bound existence is fate, and fate is the source of the darkened will. Bear in your existence the darkened will, and seek in My Son your darkened world's acts and work, that will liberate you from the hands of fate. Bear in mind that will is and will be. Born as woman and man will is the formless movement of My existence in form. Born as woman and man your darkened will is the downfallen world's meaning and fate. Once you are down-fallen, you cannot see yourself as My Son's darkened existence in fate-bound life. Move and see My Son as yourself, and see in Him your worldly Savior, who exists in blood and flesh.

Have faith in what you hear, and see My Son as your source of work and act for the liberation of the world. Born and unborn death-bound existence is the changing world's movement from form to no-form. Both as death-bound, and the will-and-the world, that sees in My Son's death the liberation of the world, the world is formless in form. Bear in mind that you are a part of the formless energy, which has entered in form to make the world appear as world-and-will. Bear in mind that this energy is moving as fate, and fate is the cause of the will, and will is the source of actions and work, that see My Will as the final end. The disorder that you may create is a fate-bound dialectical state in which things move to contradict the existence of things. Born and unborn this dialectical existence is fate-bound life's movement to free itself from fate. Bear in the fate-bound life the existence that moves to annihilate itself and see My Son as your Savior who is working and acting in order to liberate you from the hands of fate.

Hear what you have not heard before: Born and unborn your Father is your formless existence in words and acts, and God-Man is your Life. Bear the world-and-the will as Words of God, and see My Son as your Life and Light. God-Man is darkening the world-and-the will. Born and unborn see Me and My Son as working and acting force that seek liberation for mankind. Fear not what will come. Fear not what will work and act to bring Salvation to mankind. Bear with My Son your Sacrifice.

Against hatred

God-Man has created the movement of the world-and-the will as force of life. Hate not what you are as a part of God-Man who is moving as individual identities acting and working in form in space and time. Hate not what you are, and hate not anyone who is part of God-Man, who appears as Man, and no-Man in the dialectical movement that is life. Bear in your work and act the work and act that hates not, and acts not for the matter-spirit-bound world's form-giving darkened will. Hate not what I am, and what I shall be. Hate not what I am within and outside the sphere of the matter-spirit-bound life. Bear in mind that what are, and will be are destined.

Born and unborn darkened will is the source of hate, and hate is the source of the fate-bound suffering of life. Bear in mind that Heavenly Father has sent His Son to make woman and man love each other as I love My Son. Your work and act is the source of the world-and-the will that is fate-bound, and fate is the source of the world as love and light when you receive Me as your Guide. Hate work and act that act against My Son's will to become the world of love and light. Assume not the world to be a fate-bound existence, which cannot be freed from the death-bound life.

Born and unborn! Fate is, and will be. Born as woman and man you are death-bound. Born and unborn! Son of God has come to make you free from the death-bound life. Born as woman and man you are working as Man-God's formless movement in form through the existence of My Son. Bear in the movement of Man the work and act as the movement of Him. Born and unborn God-Man is Love and Light. Eat and work as children of God, and make yourself the movement of the death-bound world-and-will, and see Me as your Eternal Life.

Born as woman and man, cease not to move as I have destined. Assume work and act as My Son has assumed in the down-fallen world. Bear in your work and act Man-God's formless existence as working and acting force of Love. Born and unborn see what is going to move and coming to destroy. How do you see what cannot be seen? How do you work and act when working and acting are fate-bound movement of the death-bound life? How do you work and act as world-and-will when the world-and-the will is acting and working as fate? Bear in your act and work what I have destined, and see Me as your Savior -Son of God. Born as woman and man work and act as I am, and I shall be.

Fear not God-Man when He hates the world-and-the will, and brings the death-bound movement to life. Eat and work as one who hates the darkened life, and act and work as fate-bound movement of Man-God bearing Love and Light. God-Man is moving in life. See Him as your life, and see Me in the down-fallen existence of Son of God who has appeared by assuming human life. Eat and work as I have spoken. God is. Bear in your life the work and act as the eternal force, which will liberate you from the darkened life. Bear in you the work and act, which work and act against the movement of hateful will. God works and acts when the world becomes hatred-bound. Fear not when He comes as the force to destroy what is hatred-bound.

Born and unborn accept what world is, and will be, and see what I am and I shall be. God-Man is your Savior, and see Him as fate-bound movement in the world as Son of God. Fear not when He comes as a force of destruction to create a world of Love and Light. Fear not when He brings upon the world the movement that will destroy what is darkened by your will. God is. Assume Him as your fate-bound Life. Born and unborn see Heaven as the formless arena of Love. See what is working as the force from Heaven through the existence of My Son. Fear not the work and act of God, which will bring end, and start an era of civilization, where woman and man will act and work as the children of Light.

Go and tell women and men what you have heard. Son of God will be with you as Guide. Get your Light from Me, and see yourself as a part of Me. You are doomed to destruction because you are death-bound in the formless movement of My Son. Go for sacrifice.

Killing and destruction

Born as woman and man you are bound to the movement where things are destroyed and created by the fate-bound life. By being a fate-bound movement of Man-God in the world of form, seek no other destination as your destiny of life. Bear in your work and act the Will of Man-God, and receive His formless movement as a part of the Divine. Fear not when He acts to destroy the living creatures in order to create new forms. He deals with the life of the woman and man as the power that brings forth Light from darkness. Through work and act you, as human beings, deal with a force that has come from the world that is formless and Divine. Born as woman and man you cannot deal with any other force that moves against the Will of God. Once you seek to create such a force, the world-and-the will will seek to destroy what you seek to create. Born as woman and man work and act as destined, and ask not any other path that is not death-bound-movement of Life of Son of God, who has appeared in the realm of form. Bear in your existence what I have destined for woman and man, and the Will of God that is working and acting in the world as Christ.

Born and unborn you are darkened by My Son's existence as Man. He is moving with you as your Savior and Light. Fear not when He will ask for sacrifice, and seek movement that will destroy. Being Man and God He is fate-bound life's movement from the matter-spirit world towards God. He is forming your destiny towards the formless world- your Heavenly Home.

Kill not when you move as yourself moving in the darkened will without receiving the guidance of the Light. Kill not when you move as a death-bound individual seeking to make life matter-spirit-bound. Kill not when you seek to make yourself a movement of life by destroying others who seek to free themselves from the fate-bound life. Kill not when you feel free to move as yourself without any guidance from the world, which seeks to liberate you from the movement of fate-bound life. Kill not when you kill as an individual who seeks a deathless life. Kill not when you are a fate-bound individual working and acting and forming the fate-bound- life.

Kill not woman and man, who are forming the world-and-the will and seeking to move in life as Children of Light. Kill not woman and man, who are working, acting and forming the arena of life, where I am and I shall be, as I have destined through the existence of My Son. Kill not in the darkened state of the will, when you do not act as a part of Man-God, and His fate-bound appearance in the world as My Son. Kill not when you work and act as a form-bound evil force, that seeks to work and act in order to make itself bound to the world-and-will. Kill not as a working and acting individual, who works and acts in order to surpass the fate-bound life, that is destined. Kill not as woman and man, who works and acts as woman and man lost in the will, that is covered by the darkness of the death-bound fear.

Born as woman and man all life are destined to move as I have spoken. My Son is the Savior, and see Him as the formless death-bound Love, that kills and destroys in order to free woman and man from the arena of life. Born and unborn see Him as the formless death-bound force, that creates and destroys. He dies in order to return. His death is the source of all life. He is doomed as Man, and deathless as Light.

Kill not without surrendering your will to the Will of God. Kill not without seeking guidance from the Divine Light, who has spoken through His Son. Kill not as I have spoken, and seek Me as your Light, that will guide woman and man to the ethical way to kill and destroy. Kill the way I have destined the fate of the living creatures. Kill when I am the Force behind the will to kill. Kill when I act and work in order to create the formless movement of Man-God in the world of form. Kill as working and acting part of the force, that is Man-God, who works-not and acts-not as individuals, who desire to destroy in order to seek freedom from what is destined for one's life. Kill seeing Me as your fate, and fate of all. Kill as you will not kill your dear one without seeing the meaning of Love of God. Kill all as if all are death-bound parts of Me. Kill not as woman and man, but as the words spoken by the world-and-will's Savior- My Son. Kill all as if all are death-bound movement sacrificed to the Divine existence of My Son.

Born and unborn God-Man is the force of destruction and see Him as the killer of all. Fear not when He kills. Fear not when He destroys.

Self and selfless

Bear in mind that you are not alone as individuals acting and working in order to gain benefit from life. Born as woman and man your life is moving as I have destined, and therefore your acts and work must follow what are destiny-bound. You must not make yourself acting and working as individuals seeking to free yourself from the destiny of the human kind. Born as woman and man, give your life to the world-and-will as the world-and-will has given you the life. Born and unborn! See Me as your life, and see as a man in flesh and blood what I have assumed in life as your guide. Be and become what I am and I shall be, and see Me as the path to attain the Divine height.

Born as woman and man, come to Me as My Son's followers, who seek Divine Home. Son of God is working and acting to bring home the homeless women and men. Have faith in Him, and see My Son as God incarnate in human form. Born as woman and man the selfless act and work is the true work and act of the Self. Keep in God-Man your faith, and act and work as selfless individuals seeking emancipation from the bondage of the self. Born and unborn I am the selfless-Self, that acts and works to make you move towards Me. Son of God is the selfless matter-spirit-bound movement in the world-and-will as a movement that cannot be a part of yourself. Bear in mind My Son's existence as your fate, and His movement as the movement of the Divine among women and men, who are darkened by the will, that is bound to the self. God-Man is working to make you parts of the world-and-will as Himself. Bear in your existence this selfless movement of My Son, and give your life to Me as formless movement moving among women and men.

God is and will be. Make no one believe of himself or herself as matter-spirit-bound world's fate, that can exist as a force separate from the world-and-will, that I have destined. Have faith in God and see My Son as your matter-spirit-bound world's way of Salvation. Born and unborn act and work as selfless woman and man, who come and go as formless world's fate-bound movement in the matter-spirit state. Self is a form of identification of the matter-spirit-bound existence in form. Bear in form your identity as fate-bound man and woman, who are moving with the world-and-will as acting and working individuals seeking to be free from the matter-spirit-bound life carrying the identity of the self.

By moving seek no movement. By acting seek no actions that will bind your “self” in the matter-spirit-world. By willing as woman and man, do not will to be woman and man who seek fate-bound life. Self is and will be. Born as woman and man your fate-bound existence cannot be without the existence of the self. Born and unborn see yourself as non-existent as the formless, who is born, and existent in form as someone who is unborn. Bear in your existence the work and act of the formless that works not and acts not in the world as the matter-spirit-bound self. Born as woman and man, see My Son as your path, and come and go as movement of the world-and-will, as the selfless movement of My Son. God-Man is and will be. Bear in My Son your selfless act and work and be one with God-Man. Born and unborn you are free when I bind Myself in the existence in form and appear in the world as your Savior. You are bound in the matter-spirit state when I free Myself from the world. Both as parts of the existence of My Son and Me you are bound and free as the movement of Son of God and God-Man. Son of God has appeared to make you free from the world. See Him as your Savior as the source of freedom of life, that cannot otherwise be made free. Know yourself as parts of Me and My Son - your Savior and Guide.

Have faith in what you hear. See the world-and-will as the selfless act of My Son, who is working to make you free. See My Son as matter-spirit-bound world’s fate. Born and unborn! God and Man are not two different realities of the same. God cannot exist as Man, and Man cannot be God. My Son is not Man. He is Man-God’s fate-bound incarnation in form, who is Man and God at the same time. With Him move to the selfless-Self and come Home.

Against stealing freedom and isolating , manipulating and exploiting other human beings

Born as woman and man free yourself from the fate-bound life, and seek work and act as a force of love and light that will free others from the suffering of the world. Born as woman and man you are free to move as the will is free to associate with the freedom of the matter-spirit world, which acts and works in order to bring existence in form. Born as woman and man you are working and acting as I have destined. However, you may act and work in fate-bound life as matter-spirit world's freedom that may move against what I have destined. Be and become what I am and I shall be. Have faith in the words that you hear, and see My Son as the force of light, that will free you from the fate-bound existence bound in the matter-spirit world, that may act and work as a force against Light. Free you are when I free you from the fate-bound destiny of woman and man. Free you are when I darken the world and lift you through the existence of My Son. Free you are when I come as a death-bound life of Man created as My Son. Free you are when My Son, as Son of God, works and acts as form and formless counterparts of Man-God, as force of Love and Light.

Born and unborn! See My Son as source of freedom, and seek no freedom by complot, treachery, or death. Knowing that it is the will of woman and man, which brings the freedom to complot against others, complot not against any human being in order to be free. Bear in mind the force that will strike when you complot against My Will that brings freedom, Love and Light to human life. Born as woman and man, steal not from any woman and man the freedom that makes man and woman work and act as My Son's followers, who are moving towards Home. You are World, and your world is My Son's form and formless arena of existence. Bear with Him the freedom on the way to sacrifice.

Born and unborn! Steal not what is not yours. Steal not what is yours. Born and unborn! Steal not the freedom of woman and man who are forming the arena of existence as My Son's fate-bound journey through life. Bear in My Son your formless existence as parts of Man-God appearing in form. Born as woman and man you are free to make yourself sons and daughters of women and men, and Son of Man is free to move to Son of God as freedom that is fate-bound and forming the movement of the will towards the Divine. Seek in Son of God the force that will make the matter-spirit→world the arena of work and act, where every human existence may be free to move and come Home.

Born and unborn! Steal not what is not yours; steal not what is yours. Born as woman and man, come Home. See My Son as the Light, which moves in the matter-spirit→bound world's darkness. He will show you the path to come Home. Born and unborn! See Him as Me. See Me as Him. See what cannot be seen as Man. See Him as Man-God incarnate in human form. See your Savior as Karma-bound life's Salvation for the sons and daughters of women and men.

Fear not when I come as the formless power that complots and steals from human life the freedom to move in the world-and-the will, that work and act for the individual life. Bear in mind that I am destiny of all, and seek no freedom to steal others' freedom when you yourself are bound in the destiny of all.

Manipulate not what I am and I shall be. Manipulate not human instincts in order to govern as fate-bound master of life, who may feel free to work and act, and do not assume the role of the Savior of the world. Bear in your will the force that exists in the darkened world that will make you seek Divine Home. Fear not when I come and manipulate your mind, and seek from your will the work and act as My work and act. Fear not when I work and act and set the forces of destruction in order to create the world anew. Fear not when I come and darken the world-and-will, and seek the movement that will destroy what has darkened your mind. Have faith in what you hear. Be and become what I have destined.

Exploit not man and woman in order to make yourself a worldly power that will be able to move in the arena of life as destiny, which decides over others' life. Bear in mind the movement that will darken your mind, and steal from you the freedom to move as you desire. Bear in mind the existence of the force that will seek from the will, that is darkened by the evil power to act and work against what I have destined, the darkened world's force that will destroy the will itself that seeks destiny of its own. Bear in mind the way I act and work as My Son has spoken, and see Me as your Light that Loves and does not exploit His creation. Born and unborn! Exploit no human beings in order to make yourself acting and working as fate-bound life's savior and master. Instead work and act bearing in your will My Son's Will to bring you Home. Exploit not any woman and man as you will not desire that others will exploit you while you make efforts to find way Home. Seek Man-God as your Father, and see Son of God as form and formless actor, who is death-bound fate of all.

Born and unborn! See Me as your Home. See My Son as your destiny and come Home. Existence of man and woman are darkened by the will-and-the world as I have destined. They will be moving away from it. It is also so destined. Bear in mind the meaning and purpose of My act and work, and come Home as Son of God has spoken. Exploit no one, manipulate no one, and steal from no one the freedom to return Home.

Will-to-power

Born and unborn see what I have darkened, and understand why woman and man seek matter-spirit-bound world as their home where will-to-power is the force of the instinct-bound life. Born as woman and man see what is darkened as will, and how I seek from will the power to overcome the darkness of the will that covers the minds of the sons and daughters of the women and men. Have faith in what you hear, and see Me as the Will of God, that sees you as the world-and-will, and works and acts to free you from the fate-bound life.

Born as woman and man, will is a fate-bound existence of the matter-spirit- life. Will is an act of movement of woman and man to seek what is moving as fate of woman and man. Knowing what moves as world-and-will see what is not moving beyond fate-bound life. Knowing what is knowable by woman and man know what cannot be known by the human mind. Knowing what act of will is, act as fate-bound woman and man without acting as fate-bound individual living isolated life. Bear in mind the existence of the universal man, and see what I am as the form-giving destiny of life. See what cannot be seen by women and men in fate-bound life.

Born and unborn see what is forming your existence as will-and-the world as fate of all. Knowing world as your fate, and fate as act of will that forms the world, see Me as form and no-form, darkness and no-darkness, matter and spirit, and no-matter and no-spirit. Knowing what I am and I shall be, will not what you will to become as individuals seeking destiny of your own, separate from the destiny of all other individual beings. Knowing what is working as Life, be and become what I have destined, and see your destiny as a destiny of all human life.

Will-to-power is a force that inhabits the fate-bound form, that darkens the will appearing in the downfallen realm, which seeks to move against the destiny of the whole. Being fate-bound it acts against its own existence, and seeks its own annihilation by moving against what is destined. Born and unborn seek no work and act, that will to rule over other human beings with will-to-power. Bear in mind the existence of God that will annihilate all that seek to work and act against the destiny of all. Bear in your life the will, which shall free you from will-to-power, and power your existence with the Godly light, that will show the way Home in the world covered with darkness of form.

Born as woman and man, see My Son as Savior. Know Him as your fate-bound life's meaning, and will not any power that will make you the master over fate. By willing to overpower others, and dominate over others' life you will destroy the process that works to bring women and men to the Divine Home. Come Home as fate-bound woman and man, and seek no will-to-power as method to move as master of your own. Know what acts and works as form-giving fate, and what fate is. See world-and-will as the arena of movement where will is forming the world, and the world is fate-bound with the will. The power of the will to move against what I have destined for all is an evil power, which exists in the fate-bound life. Fear not when evil acts and works against the force of the Creator. Fear not when existence is challenged by the movement of the individual life. Fear not when the world is forced to move by the force of evil, that can act against the Will of God. Fear not what I am and I shall be. Form-giving world will cease to exist once the force of evil will come into play. Destruction will descend as inevitable hands of fate. Fear not man and woman who glorify the will-to-power of the individual self, and seek to dominate over others as masters of fate. Remember the power of God that will exterminate the movement of the power that sets evil into play.

Born and unborn! See Me as fate, and the power to make the world move towards Home. Set no act as fate-giving act of yourself, but act according to the Will of God.

Individual differences among human beings

Individual differences that you experience among human beings, are created by the force of the will to separate itself from the movement of the whole. Born as woman and man fate-bound movement of the whole is the darkened world's death-bound movement, which creates differences among women and men. Born as woman and man every life must seek to free itself from what is fate-bound. By moving in the fate-bound life man and woman, as sons and daughters of women and men, move as I have destined. Individual differences arise as the force behind the movement that acts and works to free individual human being from the movement of the whole, as fate-bound existence forming the world-and-the will. Bear in mind that once world-and- $\neg$ -will come into play the individuals are fated to live as destined. Destiny of all human life is to act and work as individual life coming Home. Born as woman and man once human beings seek to move away from what is fated to move to God, the Will of God acts to destroy the force that forms the foundation of the will to act against the destiny-bound movement to God.

Born as individuals there exists "anti-movement" in all that seeks to act and work against the movement of the fate-bound life of sons and daughters of women and men. Son of God acts as this "anti-movement", which frees man and woman from the fate-bound life. Born and unborn! Different individual act and work are forces of the different darkened state of the mind. Bear in your act and work your downfallen state, and seek to move away from this world and enter the realm of God through the help of Son of God.

Born as woman and man, seek to live with other human beings without bringing in the differences due to colors, races and forms. Be and become what I am, and as I have destined. Create no circumstance of life that will create loneliness for woman and man, and act not to form any world that will cease to make the world a home for all. Bear in work and act the force of Love and Light that see human beings as Children of God.

Born and unborn! See not Me as act and work that create individual races and colors. I exist in all colors and races and forms. Move as sons and daughters of women and men who will form the foundation of a world where I am the foundation of all. Eat and work as woman and man as equal to woman and man from other colors and races, that you do not belong. Eat and work as woman and man who seek in woman and man Love and Light of God.

Born and unborn come Home, and see My world as the world of all colors and races where My Son is the Light of Love. Fear not when I shall act to destroy the world that creates differences among women and men due to colors and races and physical form. Fear not when I shall work and act to bring down upon life wars and destruction as acts and work of sons and daughters of women and men, who have darkened the world with differences based on colors, races and forms. Fear not when I shall act and work to make all races and colors of woman and man death-bound in order to form the foundation of a colorless world existing in harmony with all colors and races of women and men. Fear not the act of God that will create the world anew. Fear not the work of Son of God, who is moving to make the world fear-bound with death and destruction that will arrive. Fear not when I shall bring you Home through the existence of Son of God. Have faith in what you hear, and come Home as woman and man without differences of colors, races and forms.

God-Man has revealed Himself. See Him as a Man who has assumed a color and a death-bound life. Both as woman and man, who come and go in the downfallen state of the world, He is moving as Love and Light. Born and unborn see Me as the world, and see My Son as your path. Come Home. Be One with God-Man. Have faith in what you hear, and seek to move away from the fate-bound matter-spirit-world. Form the foundation of a new civilization where I am the foundation of Life. Bear in work and act the death-bound life's meaning as I have spoken through My Son, and see Him as your Savior and Light. Know that differences among human beings arise as fate-bound world's force to act and work with a purpose to move away from the world-and-the will, and come Home as individual beings. Know what is forming the darkness of the mind, and seek to differ from others as sons and daughters of women and men. Move as sons and daughters of the darkened world, and seek to be different from those who are not following Godly Light.

Fear not differences when differences make you not different from any other man or woman due to color or race, but different as fate-bound life's movement in the enlightened way. Create your difference with others by assuming life as Children of Light, who see no one as different in the matter-spirit-bound existence in form. Create no civilization of woman and man who will create differences among woman and man due to their abilities to act and work according the physical strengths. Fear not when difference is due to man and woman's abilities to relate to Love and Light of God. Fear not when difference among human beings create no difference of wealth and power, that darken the will of woman and man, but create differences as Children of God, who are moving Home and seeking Divine Love. Fear not work and act that will create foundation of life , that may be different from others, where Love and Light of God can enter in order to illumine the world.

See not yourself as equal to all because different darkness of the mind cover different physical forms. Born and unborn see what is making differences among human beings, and who is the source of the differences when there is no difference among women and men as matter-spirit-bound existence in different colors, races and forms.

Values with Divine guidance

Bear in your life the values that I have destined. God-Man is the foundation of all values, through which man and woman can accomplish what I have destined as the ultimate meaning of life. Born as woman and man act not as individuals, who have fallen in the will, which is fate-bound, and see no other path but the matter-spirit-bound force of life. Assume the world-and-the will as the arena of work and act, which will generate work and act to free the human beings from the fate-bound life.

Born and unborn assume the world-and-the will as the arena of work and act, that can make you work and act as the movement of Man-God, who has assumed life. Bear in the world-and-the will the force that is the movement of God in life. Born as woman and man come Home, and see Me as the foundation of your work and act, and be one with Man-God. Fear not when I shall come to create a darkened movement in order to free you from the bondage of life. Fear not when I shall seek sacrifice of life, and ask you to move to the altar of God where you will be sacrificed as the fate-bound movement of life.

Bear in mind that when I come as a fate-bound existence in flesh and blood the power of the Divine will descend to destroy. Born and unborn! See My Son as fate of all. Son of God is the foundation of work and act of human life. See yourself as parts of the existence that is making His worldly sacrifice. Fear not when Heaven will fall and Son of God will act as the fate of all. Fear not when I shall work to make you work as the Children of God.

Fear not when the power of God will descend as a force descending from Heaven, and when the mountains will move. Bear in your work and act the desire to come Home. See Son of God as your Savior and go for the Sacrifice. Your life is formed by the fate-bound power that rests in all matter-spirit-bound life. See the world, where I have sent My Son, as the movement that is forming the world that I have destined.

Make God-Man the source of values. Make yourself darkened fate-bound life's movement, where Man-God will attract all to Godly Life. Seeing the world as Him seek no other values than what are fate-bound in the existence of My Son. Through Him attain the path to arrive Home.

Fear not when the destruction will descend. Fear not when it will destroy that are created in forms. See in the work and the act of God the movement that has come to the world to show women and men the Heavenly Home. Fear not the Light that will descend with the power of destruction. Fear not the movement of Son of God among the sons and daughters of women and men. Form the foundation of life that will liberate human beings from the fate-bound world as sons and daughters of women and men. Form the world and will with your Savior, and work and act as I have destined.

Fear not the world as I am. Fear not what is Me, and that are work and act of God. Be and become what I am and I shall be. See My Son as your path. Come home. See My world as the Karma-bound world's force, that will free you from what is karma-bound. Born and unborn! See what cannot be seen, hear what cannot be heard, form concepts that are beyond the capacity of the human mind to form. See Son of God as the power, which will make you see and hear God, and transmit to you the power to form concepts about God and His Son.

God-Man is your world as I am, and I shall be. Move with Him to the Divine Home. Follow Him as your Guide as I have destined. He bears in His Existence the fate of all. Fear not when I appear in form amidst sons and daughters of women and men. Born and unborn! Fear not Me and My Son. Son of God is your Savior. He has come to liberate you from the fate-bound life.

Born and unborn! Go for sacrifice. Face destruction on the altar of God.
